As the Bureau is aware, the New York Office during the morning of 10/28/64 received a radio message to the effect that CG 5824-S* would be returning to the U.S. "in two days." The obvious purpose of this return trip within this short space of time is for CG 5824-S* to brief GUS HALL on his discussions with leading people in the CPSU concerning the recent removal of NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV from his positions of power in the CPSU and the Government of the USSR. This, of course, is in compliance with his responsibilities as International Secretary of the CP, USA to keep HALL informed on such matters. We anticipate that the period of his stay in the U.S. will be of short duration; that upon completion of his briefing with GUS HALL and, of course, his debriefing by the Bureau, he will immediately return to the USSR to engage in discussions and negotiations with the CPSU as the Bureau is already aware.

In view of the additional travel with its additional expense which the informant must necessarily incur, Bureau authority is requested to advance an additional $1,500 to CG 5824-S* to cover these costs. This consists of approximately $1,300 for round trip, first class air fare from Moscow and return plus an additional $200 for expenses to be incurred in Western Europe, returning and enroute. We do not believe the CPSU will furnish any part of this expense since CG 5824-S* would be undertaking this round trip for purposes of the CP, USA and not the CPSU. However, it is possible that CG 5824-S* will be able to take reimbursement for all or part of this amount from CP, USA reserve funds upon completion of the trip and this will be closely followed to insure that maximum reimbursement is made commensurate with the security of the informant's cover. In the meantime, however, Bureau authority is requested to advance the amount of $1,500 to CG 5824-S* to cover these expenses.

This memorandum recommends that information furnished to NY 694-S* by his Soviet contact concerning the improvement in Sino-Soviet relations be disseminated to the White House, the Acting Attorney General, the Secretary of State Rusk and Director McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA).

On 10/31/64 NY 694-S* met with his Soviet contact, Vladimir A. Chuchukin, an official of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations. Chuchukin told informant to transmit the following information immediately to Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA.

On 10/28/64 Chinese Premier CHOU En-lai advised the Soviet Ambassador to China that the Chinese have always desired unity with the Soviets. CHOU suggested that the Soviets invite a Chinese delegation to Moscow for the November 7th celebration of the Russian Revolution. CHOU indicated that he personally would head the Chinese delegation. CHOU suggested that all satellite countries be advised of the Soviets' invitation to the Chinese and that all satellite countries, except Yugoslavia, be invited to attend the celebration. CHOU indicated that if it was deemed unwise to invite a Chinese delegation to the November 7th celebration, the Soviets should invite a Chinese delegation to the Soviet Union as soon as possible thereafter.

The Soviets advised all satellite countries as requested by CHOU and all agreed that a Chinese delegation should be invited to attend the November 7th celebration in Moscow. As a result, the Chinese have been formally invited to attend the celebration. The Soviets consider this to be the first step in re-establishing unity with the Chinese and have indicated that they will do everything consistent with the Moscow Conferences of 1957 and 1960 to make peace with the Chinese.

OBSERVATIONS:

It will be recalled that this past summer the FBI was among the representatives at a meeting of the United States Intelligence Board at which one of the items under consideration was the Sino-Soviet dispute.

Memorandum to Mr. W. C. Sullivan

The question of whether or not the Soviet Union and Communist China would ever again establish unity was discussed in detail. The position advanced by representatives of CIA and all other members of the Board was that there never again could be unity on a substantial basis. The FBI disagreed fully with this flat, unequivocal declaration and pointed out that it was unwarranted on the basis of both the historical record and current facts. The FBI pointed out that under new leaders in the Soviet Union or Communist China a marked change could occur and a reconciliation could be effected which would have the Soviets and the Chinese Communists again standing shoulder to shoulder against the noncommunist world.

No one on the Board would agree to the FBI position, but we stood firm and insisted on taking a footnote disagreeing with the position taken by all the other members of the Board.

In light of the current information set forth in this memorandum, it now looks as if the FBI position was the only practical and sound one taken among all the members of the intelligence community.

On the morning of 10-16-64, Supervisor [redacted] of our New York Office called and reported the following information concerning a coded message which had been sent from the Soviets to the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA).

On the evening of 10-15-64, Gibby Needleman, CPUSA attorney, contacted NY 694-S* and advised him that he had a package that he had received from his contact for NY 694-S*. Arrangements were made to pick this up on the evening of the 15th. The package contained undeveloped microfilm which contained the following message.

"Most urgent from Central Committee to Gus Hall. Central Committee of CPSU considered it necessary to inform you that Comrade Khrushchev asked Central Committee of CPSU to release him from the duties of the First Secretary and the member of the Presidium of Central Committee and (as) Chairman of Council of Ministers."

"His request was motivated by his old age and by deterioration of his health. On October 14, Conference of Central Committee complied with the request of Khrushchev and released him from his duties. Conference of Central Committee designated Comrade Brezhnev L. I. as the First Secretary of Central Committee, CPSU. Comrade Kosygin A. N. was nominated as the Chairman of the Council of Ministers by the decree of the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet. Official announcement will be made on October 16. Conference of Central Committee stressed unanimously that course of 20th, 21st and (22nd) Congresses, the programs of CPSU are firm guides for our Parties (Communist Parties). Leninist policy of peaceful coexistence of states with different social systems, the policy of strengthening world peace and friendship between peoples will be invariable course of our Communist Parties and state, now and in the future. As before, Central Committee of the CPSU will do everything possible for further development and strengthening of brotherly relations with the Communist Parties for coordination of communist movement on the basis Marxist-Leninist principles, declaration and statement of Moscow conferences. Central Committee of CPSU expresses confidence that our brotherly connections with the Communist Parties based on principles of proletarian internationalism will get stronger in the name of our common cause.

On 10/27/64, NY 694-S* received from the Soviets, by way of radio, a ciphered message, the plain text of which is as follows:

"October 27, 1964

"We have received letter of Gus Hall dated 19 October. We in Moscow understand difficulties which you met because information on decision of Central Committee Plenum had been received not long before articles in press appeared. On our part we did all possible that you were informed about decision of Central Committee Plenum before publication on Plenum appeared in press. Due to several reasons we had no opportunity to inform friends more in detail on decision of Plenum and we are going to do it in nearest future. We thank Gus Hall for support and greetings sent to leadership of CPSU. We take opportunity to send our heartiest greetings to Gus Hall and his friends. Dear Mr. McCone:

We have learned from a source which has furnished reliable information in the past that a Soviet official in the United States recently furnished the following information to Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA.

On October 28, 1964, Chinese Premier CHOU En-lai summoned the Soviet Ambassador to China and told the Ambassador that the Chinese have always desired unity with the Soviets. CHOU suggested that a Chinese delegation be invited to attend the November 7th celebration of the Russian Revolution in Moscow. CHOU indicated that if the Soviets agreed to this suggestion, he personally would head the Chinese delegation. CHOU further suggested that all satellite countries be advised of the Soviets' invitation to the Chinese and that delegations from all satellite countries, except Yugoslavia, be invited to the celebration. CHOU also stated that if the satellite countries deemed it unwise to invite the Chinese to the November 7th celebration, the Soviets should invite a Chinese delegation to the Soviet Union as soon thereafter as possible.

Dear Mr. McCone:

My memorandum dated October 27, 1964, captioned "Soviet Personnel Intelligence Activities" furnished information to you concerning the recent political upheaval in the Soviet Union which resulted in the removal of former Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev from power.

Material contained in the enclosed memorandum, supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past, sets forth the version of Khrushchev's removal which was furnished to the Communist Party, USA, by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union. It is noted that the version of Khrushchev's removal furnished to the Communist Party, USA, differs materially from that set forth in my memorandum of October 27, 1964, which contained information supplied by a different source.

VERSION OF THE REMOVAL FROM POWER OF FORMER SOVIET
PREMIER NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV FURNISHED TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION

The following version of the removal from power of former Soviet Premier Khrushchev was recently furnished the Communist Party, USA, by the Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

The dissatisfaction with Khrushchev's method of work was of long-standing. Contrary to press reports, Khrushchev chaired the two-day meeting of the Presidium and subsequent meeting of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union at which criticism of Khrushchev was voiced. Khrushchev replied to the meeting of the Presidium, expressing agreement that most of the criticism was justified. He cited his inability to cope with the "nature of his work" due to age and ill health. Khrushchev noted he was beginning to feel tense and nervous, which might account for his recent "silly" statements. He expressed confidence in the "cadre" to take his place and then wrote his resignation from positions as First Secretary, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, Chairman of Council of Ministers of the Soviet Union, and as a member of the Presidium of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union. Khrushchev pledged the dedication of the remainder of his life to work for the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and for communism.

The plenary session of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, which followed the meeting of the Presidium, was attended by some four hundred members, alternates and control commission members. "Scores, if not hundreds," participated in the discussion and then voted to relieve Khrushchev of his duties as he had requested, but voted to keep him on the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union.

VERSION OF THE REMOVAL FROM POWER OF FORMER SOVIET
PREMIER NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV FURNISHED TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION

The main criticism leveled at Khrushchev concerned the lack of "collective leadership" and, although this criticism was frequently discussed with Khrushchev, he paid less and less attention to it. Khrushchev not only replaced committees of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union, but even replaced departments of the Soviet Government. Foreign policy was made by Khrushchev without consulting anyone. For example, he had the reserves of the treasury at his disposal and made commitments for foreign aid which seriously depleted the treasury. Khrushchev took action in agricultural matters against the advice of experts which caused chaos and required the purchase of grain from abroad, further depleting the treasury.

Khrushchev was also criticized for his travels abroad in the midst of domestic problems. These actions by Khrushchev caused great discontent among the Soviet people. His latest scheme to form seventeen different economic divisions in the Soviet Union would have created complete chaos in the economy, especially in agriculture. Further criticism of Khrushchev was that those around him were beginning to build him into a "demigod."

The Communist Party of the Soviet Union affirmed that there would be no change in the Soviet political line affecting domestic or foreign policy. The general line of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union remains "fight for peace and peaceful coexistence with all countries."

The Communist Party of the Soviet Union will soon circulate a letter to all fraternal parties regarding Khrushchev's removal, but it will not contain all the details furnished to the Communist Party, USA, as some of the details will remain confidential to avoid distortions and misunderstandings.

NOTE:

Classified "~~Top Secret~~" because unauthorized disclosure of this information could jeopardize CG 5824-S*, who is of continuing value, and such disclosure could result in exceptionally grave damage to the Nation. See New York teletype 10/30/64, "Solo, IS-C." Dissemination being made to the Honorable Bill D. Moyers, Special Assistant to the President; the Honorable Dean Rusk, the Secretary of State; the Honorable John A. McCone, Director, Central Intelligence Agency; and ~~TOP SECRET~~ the Acting Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General.

VERSION OF THE REMOVAL FROM POWER OF FORMER SOVIET
PREMIER NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV FURNISHED TO THE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA, BY THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION

It is to be noted that this version of Khrushchev's removal as furnished to the Communist Party, USA, stresses the fact that Khrushchev voluntarily resigned. This is in direct contradiction to information previously obtained from a different source and previously furnished to you by memorandum dated October 27, 1964, wherein Khrushchev's ouster reportedly was brought about against his will and over his objections. It may well be that the version furnished by the Soviets to the Communist Party, USA, is designed solely to constitute the line which the Communist Party, USA, is to advance publicly in this matter.

SUBJECT: SOLO
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

CG 5824-S*, accompanied by his wife, returned from the 16th Solo Mission on 10-29-64, after a stay in the Soviet Union from 10-24-64 to 10-28-64, in order to report to Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), the "inside story" concerning the removal of former Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. While in the Soviet Union, informant had discussions with several prominent members of the Presidium of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CCCPSU), including Leonid I. Brezhnev and M. A. Suslov.

KHRUSHCHEV'S REMOVAL AS REPORTED TO CG 5824-S*

The story of Khrushchev's removal as told to our informant by leaders of the current Soviet Government is as follows:

Contrary to press reports, Khrushchev was chairman of the two-day meeting of the Presidium and the subsequent meeting of the CCCPSU which led to Khrushchev's removal. Criticism of Khrushchev brought out at these meetings involved his independent actions which created dissatisfaction on the part of Presidium members. They cited as an example Khrushchev's direction of agricultural matters against the advice of experts which produced havoc and ultimately required the purchase of grain from abroad. This together with commitments made by Khrushchev for foreign aid placed a severe strain on the Soviet treasury. In addition, Khrushchev was criticized for traveling abroad at a time when problems at home demanded his attention. This caused great discontent among the Soviet people. It was further alleged that Khrushchev's latest scheme to form 17 different economic divisions in the Soviet Union would have created complete chaos in the economy, especially in agriculture. Further, there was fear among other members of the Presidium that those around Khrushchev were beginning to build him into a "demigod."

Our informant was advised that Khrushchev was not only chairman of the meetings but that he had agreed most of the criticism was justified and had written out his own resignation. Khrushchev's handwritten statement and minutes of the meetings were then shown to our informant as proof that Khrushchev voluntarily resigned and was not ousted against his will.

Re: SOLO

FUTURE LINE OF THE SOVIETS

Our informant was told that the general line of the Soviets will remain "peaceful coexistence with all countries." He was also advised that the Soviets will soon circulate a lengthy document to all fraternal parties regarding Khrushchev's resignation. This document will not contain all the details which were furnished to our informant as some of this material must remain confidential to avoid distortion and misunderstanding. (The copy of this document which will be made available to the CPUSA undoubtedly will be transmitted through our Solo apparatus and will be available to us.)

SINO-SOVIET RELATIONS

CG 5824-S* was told that the meeting of the Editorial Commission to prepare for a conference of world Communist Parties will take place in Moscow on 12-15-64 as originally scheduled. He was told there will be a series of short conferences with intervening periods which will cover several months, therefore, it could be expected the world conference will not take place until the late Summer of 1965. No statement was made as to what the Soviet position would be with respect to the Chinese problems at this world conference. Our informant was advised that the Soviets have stopped polemics with the Chinese even though the Chinese have continued to attack the Soviets through mass organizations in China and other countries.

Our informant does not plan to return to Moscow until December, 1964, at which time he will participate in the initial meeting of the Editorial Commission mentioned above.

CONTRADICTIONS RE KHRUSHCHEV'S REMOVAL

We have received information concerning the change in Soviet leadership from two of our top informants, CG 5824-S* and Fedora. While the information furnished by these two sources is essentially the same with respect to the criticism levied against Khrushchev, there is an important difference. Fedora has reported that Khrushchev was dismissed, despite his strong efforts to maintain himself in power. CG 5824-S* was told by current Soviet leaders that Khrushchev was chairman of the meeting at which he was criticized, agreed with most of the criticism and then voluntarily wrote out his own resignation which was accepted.

100-428091

The variations in the information reported by our two informants are probably due to the fact that Fedora got the legitimate details whereas CG 5824-S* was given a "whitewash" version for the consumption of the CPUSA. This apparently will be the version which the Soviets will make known to the world.

ACTION:

In line with the Director's instructions, appropriate letters are attached concerning the removal of Khrushchev, for approval to the White House, Acting Attorney General, the Secretary of State and Director of CIA.

COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION REACTION TO PROPOSAL OF GUS
HALL FOR INTERNATIONAL COORDINATING BODY OF WORLD COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

It will be recalled that Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), in past communications with the CP, Soviet Union (CPSU), has raised the proposal that a new international coordinating body should be set up to coordinate the policies and activities of the various parties in the world communist movement. During the latter part of October, 1964, a representative of the CP, USA was in Moscow, USSR and met with Boris N. Ponomarev, a member of the Praesidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, CPSU (CCCP) and Nikolai V. Mostovets, head of the North and South American Section of the International Department, CCCPSU. Upon requesting the reaction of the CPSU to this proposal by Gus Hall, the CP, USA representative was informed that the CPSU did not foresee the probability that any such permanent bodies or conferences would be set up for some time to come.

JESSICA SMITH, EDITOR,
"NEW WORLD REVIEW"

During the latter part of October, 1964, a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) who was then in Moscow, USSR, received the following information during a discussion with Boris N. Penomarev, a member of the Praesidium and a Secretary of the Central Committee, CP, Soviet Union (CCCPSU), and Nikolai V. Mostovets, head of the North and South American Section, International Department, CCCPSU:

U.S.

Visiting in Moscow, USSR at that time was Jessica Smith, Editor of the "New World Review", a magazine published in the United States but concerning which it has previously been reported that it has in the past been both directly and indirectly subsidized by the CPSU. Smith was there to collect material for her magazine. The above representatives of the CCCPSU advised that she had raised the question of the CPSU subsidy of the "New World Review" and expressed the view that this subsidy should be sent to her directly as was formerly the case, instead of channeling the money through the CP, USA as is being done now in accordance with the desires of Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA. Smith was not successful in changing the existing arrangements.

VICTOR PERLO

During the latter part of October, 1964, it was learned that the Editorial Board of the "Problems of Peace and Socialism" (also known as "World Marxist Review"), the official theoretical journal of the world communist movement which is published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, has proposed to the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) that Victor Perlo be named as a permanent correspondent to the "World Marxist Review" from the United States. This proposal had been transmitted to the CP, USA somewhat earlier through Daniel Rubin, Organizational Secretary of the CP, USA, who returned to the United States in early October, 1964.

During late October, 1964, when this matter was raised with Gus Hall, General Secretary, CP, USA, Hall stated that this proposal had not been communicated to him by Rubin. Hall then questioned Rubin on this matter and Rubin denied that the proposal had ever been discussed with him. In any event, Hall stated that he was not in agreement with this plan and indicated further that he did not have confidence in Perlo.

PROPOSED NEW RESEARCH CENTER ON PROBLEMS OF WORLD COMMUNISM

During late October, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

It was learned during the latter part of October, 1964, that A. M. Romyantsev, a member of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) and Editor-in-Chief of "Problems of Peace and Socialism" (also known as the "World Marxist Review") ("WMR"), official theoretical journal of the world communist movement which is published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, was then in Moscow, USSR, where he was working on a project. He is proposing the setting up of a new research body in Budapest, Hungary, or a similar place, which will hold regular sessions to discuss problems of the world communist movement. In time, this body could evolve into a coordinating body of the world communist movement. The "WMR" has outlived its usefulness for this purpose since the Communist Party of China (CPC) and the Albanian Party of Labor (APL) have withdrawn their representatives from the Editorial Board of the "WMR."

INFORMATION CONCERNING POSTPONEMENT OF VISIT OF
NIKOLAI V. MOSTOVETS, HEAD OF THE NORTH AND SOUTH AMERICAN SECTION, INTERNATIONAL DEPARTMENT, CENTRAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION, TO THE UNITED STATES, OCTOBER, 1964

U.S.S.R.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, during late October, 1964, advised as follows:

In late October, 1964, Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), advised that he would not visit the United States in late October-early November, 1964, as scheduled. Mostovets noted that because of the recent removal of Nikita S. Khrushchev from leadership positions in the CPSU and the Government of the USSR and because of the removal of other individuals from leading positions, it had been decided that for the present such travel on his part should be postponed until at least April, 1965. The reason for this postponement was that it was felt that by doing this they could avoid a number of embarrassing questions regarding the recent removals which had taken place in the USSR.

COMMENTS OF REPRESENTATIVE OF COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION CONCERNING EMERGENCY FUNDS
FOR ELECTION CAMPAIGN OF COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

In late October, 1964, during a meeting with Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), inquiry was made as to whether the $100,000 emergency fund which the CPSU had agreed to furnish the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) in connection with its election campaign and efforts had been transmitted to the United States. In response to this question, Mostovets stated, "We sent this money to your Party two weeks ago" and it should have been delivered.

On October 31, 1964, Gus Hall, General Secretary of the CP, USA, advised that such money had not been received by the CP, USA.

Dear Mr. McCone:

The following information, supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past, is being brought to your attention as a matter of possible interest.

The Communist Party of the Soviet Union has recently advised the Communist Party, USA, that the meeting of the Editorial Commission to prepare for a conference of world communist parties will take place in Moscow, Russia, on December 15, 1964, as originally planned. The Soviets in the near future will circulate a letter to twenty-six fraternal parties requesting their views on the method of conducting the meeting of the Editorial Commission. The Soviets will suggest that the first session be of short duration, possibly three or four days. This will be followed by a recess of a month or two for Party consultations. A second short session will then take place followed by another recess of a month or more, prior to convening the third and final session. It is not anticipated that the world conference of communist parties will be held prior to the late Summer of 1965.

Because of the sensitive nature of our sources, we have classified this communication "~~Top Secret~~." This information is being furnished to other officials of the Government.

SUBJECT: SOLO
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

During the course of Solo Mission 16, CG 5824-S*, while in the Soviet Union during the period 10/24/64 to 10/28/64, conferred with several leading officials of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union who made the following comments concerning the convening of a world conference of communist parties.

The meeting of the Editorial Commission to prepare for a conference of world communist parties will take place in Moscow on 12/15/64, as originally planned. The Soviets will soon circulate a letter to twenty-six fraternal parties requesting their views on the method of conducting the meeting. The Soviets will suggest that there be a series of short conferences with intervening periods which will cover several months and, therefore, it is not anticipated that the world conference of communist parties will be held prior to the late Summer of 1965.

OBSERVATION:

There has been considerable speculation throughout the world as to whether the 12/15/64 Editorial Commission meeting will take place in Moscow as originally planned. The information obtained by CG 5824-S* concerning this matter should be of considerable interest to officials of our Government.

ACTION:

Attached for approval are appropriate letters to the White House, the Acting Attorney General, Secretary of State Rusk, and Director McCone of Central Intelligence Agency.

In late October, 1964, Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), stated that when James Allen had been in the USSR, he had had a number of discussions with him, one of which related to money matters. Mostovets stated he could not understand how come Allen had raised the matter of money particularly since this subject matter was to be a confidential topic and discussed only with either Gus Hall or with Morris Childs, his representative. He then suggested that if the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) wanted to adhere to this policy regarding the discussion of financial matters, "your Party should put the reins on such people."

COMMENTS OF LEADING PERSONNEL OF COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION ON SUBJECT OF CLOSER RELATIONS BETWEEN THE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA AND THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION

In their meetings with a representative of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) held on October 28, 1964, in Moscow, USSR, both Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), and M. A. Suslov, a member of the Presidium of the Central Committee, CPSU, emphasized that the recent changes in the leadership of the CPSU would not affect the relations between their Party and the CP, USA and such relations would remain unchanged.

In his comments on this subject, Suslov noted that "Relations between your Party and ours, we hope will be more harmonious in the future. We need to develop these relationships." He emphasized that Gus Hall should be told that "we" love your Party, love your Party spirit of internationalism, and that we know the position of your Party.

Brezhnev on this same subject stated "We must strengthen the relations between our Parties." He went on to note that often it is difficult to explain or carry on a close relationship between our Parties when it is on paper. The human contact is most important and, therefore, according to Brezhnev, you and other representatives of your Party should travel more often to see us and discuss Party matters.

ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN

Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), in a discussion held in Moscow, USSR, on October 28, 1964, was heard to comment on the recent death of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, Chairman, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), in the Soviet Union. In this connection, he noted that she could have lived if she had observed doctors' orders; however, Elizabeth resisted and violated the suggestions and rules for her treatment that the doctors had imposed. He had raised the foregoing for the purpose of making sure that the CP, USA knew that the CPSU had done everything possible in order to save Flynn's life.

CONFERENCE OF LATIN AMERICAN COMMUNIST
PARTIES SCHEDULED LATE NOVEMBER, 1964,
HAVANA, CUBA

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, during late October, 1964, advised as follows:

Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), recently remarked that there was a good possibility that the scheduled Conference of Latin American Communist Parties tentatively set for late November, 1964, in Havana, Cuba, may not be held. He noted that a number of Latin American Communist Parties, like those major Parties in Argentina and Chile, have indicated that they were not in favor of such a conference and do not desire to be openly tied up with Cuba.

In addition, this same individual indicated, without so specifically stating, that the CPSU would like to discourage such international contacts between the Parties unless, of course, such contacts were initiated by them.

STATUS OF HEALTH OF M. A. SUSLOV, MEMBER OF PRESIDUM, CENTRAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION, LATE OCTOBER,
1964

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, during late October, 1964, advised as follows:

In late October, 1964, M. A. Suslov, a member of the Presidium, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), had been released from the hospital and was observed in Moscow, USSR. When Suslov was observed, he was in obvious ill health, noticeably flushed, and continuously coughing, sometimes so violently that he was unable to carry on the conversation in which he was engaged. Throughout the period that Suslov was observed, it was noted that he was constantly sipping hot tea and taking medicine.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

TIMUR TIMOFEEV, DEPUTY DIRECTOR, INSTITUTE OF WORLD ECONOMY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS,
USSR ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, MOSCOW, USSR

During late October, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

It was learned during the latter part of October, 1964, that Timur Timofeev, Deputy Director, Institute of World Economy and International Relations, USSR Academy of Sciences, Moscow, USSR, was not then working at his regular office at the Institute. It was learned that Timofeev has been detached from his normal duties and has been secretly working out in the country, away from Moscow. His assignment is in the preparation of documents for the use of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) at the December 15, 1964, meeting of the Preparatory Commission for the World Conference of Communist and Workers Parties now tentatively scheduled for mid-1965.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

GIFT OF STALLIONS TO BROTHER OF GUS
HALL FROM POLISH UNITED WORKERS PARTY

It will be recalled that extensive negotiations have been conducted over a period of many months to arrange for the gift of some Arabian stallions to be presented to the brother of Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) by the Polish United Workers Party. It was finally agreed that the Polish United Workers Party would make such a gift to Hall's brother, who is engaged in the raising of horses in Minnesota.

During the latter part of October, 1964, it was learned that a representative of the CP, USA turned over to the CP, Soviet Union (CPSU) a letter from the CP, USA to be transmitted to the Polish United Workers Party requesting that an invitation be issued to Hall's brother to visit Poland to take up this matter personally.

On 11/2/64 CG 5824-S* provided to SAs WALTER A. BOYLE and RICHARD W. HANSEN a brief typewritten note which had been received by him through a mail drop from the CP of Canada. The text of this note, together with interpretations of CG 5824-S*, is set forth below:

"Oct. 29th, 1964.

"Dear em:

"Thanks for the enclosure (the copy of the speech on the international situation presented by GUS HALL at a 9/64 National Board, CP, USA, meeting at NYC which was to be published in a forthcoming edition of 'Political Affairs') you sent us. ReNYtel dated 10/30/64 and NY tel call 10/30/64 to Inspector SIZOO.

ReNYtel sets forth a summary of information furnished by CG 5824-S* concerning the 16th Solo Mission, a portion of which read as follows:

Late evening, 10/28/64, CG 5824-S* advised by NIKOLAI MOSTOVETS, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) that examination of original WILLIAM ALBERTSON document completed by Security Department experts who concluded that document was a forgery. Detailed report being prepared and will be transmitted to CP, USA through Solo apparatus as soon as possible. CG 5824-S was furnished no details of the analysis.

ReNYtel call dealt with fact that NY 694-S* had received late 10/30/64 a number of messages from the Russians, one of which related to the WILLIAM ALBERTSON document. The message from the Russians on the ALBERTSON document reflected that they had now concluded that on the basis of comparison of handwriting appearing on the ALBERTSON document with specimens of the known handwriting of ALBERTSON, that the document was considered authentic. The message from the Russians on the ALBERTSON document which was received through Solo channels on 10/30/64 was discussed with CG 5824-S* on 10/31/64. CG 5824-S* stated he was extremely surprised at this message and honestly could not factually explain the "reversal of the Russians" on this matter.

CG 5824-S* then stated that on the evening of 10/28/64, after having concluded some extended discussions with LEONID I. BREZHNEV and other CPSU personalities, he made it known to MOSTOVETS that he would return to the U.S. during the early a.m. of 10/29/64 in order to brief HALL and the CP, USA leadership on his discussions with CPSU leaders. At this same time, CG 5824-S* told MOSTOVETS that it was extremely important that he be able to carry back with him the results of the handwriting examinations made by the experts of the Security Department in connection with the ALBERTSON document. He stated that he told MOSTOVETS that GUS HALL was personally waiting for this and demanded some answer. Although it was late in the evening, MOSTOVETS agreed that he would call the Security Department and orally get a statement from them on the ALBERTSON document. Later, MOSTOVETS returned and personally advised CG 5824-S* that he had talked to the Security people and they said that the ALBERTSON document was a "forgery." A detailed report on this matter, according to MOSTOVETS, would be furnished to the Party through apparatus channels.

Source then noted that he cannot explain the complete variance of the report received orally from MOSTOVETS on 10/28/64 and the written message received through channels on 10/30/64. He stated it was possible that MOSTOVETS had never, as he claimed, actually been in contact with the Security Department or perhaps was unable to make such contact on late 10/28/64. If this is true, MOSTOVETS may have felt he must come up with some answer for CG 5824-S* to carry back to the CP, USA. Since the Security Department was already on record that the ALBERTSON document was a fraud, based on a review of a photograph of the document, and this information already furnished to the CP, USA during earlier visit of DANNY RUBIN to Moscow, MOSTOVETS may have felt he could safely relay the message to CG 5824-S* that the ALBERTSON document was a forgery. Then it is also possible and more likely true that MOSTOVETS did contact someone in the Security Department and was given misinformation on the matter; that this is true is partially borne out by fact that MOSTOVETS remarked that a report would be forwarded through channels which was the situation. Source stated that he could only surmise that the above might have occurred, but he is absolutely certain, in his own mind, that the information he furnished was exactly what had been relayed to him by MOSTOVETS.

The enclosed letterhead memorandum has been shown as having been made at Washington, D.C., to further protect the identity of this source.

The following is set forth for the additional information of the Bureau:

CG 5824-S* and CG 6653-S arrived in Moscow, USSR, during the late afternoon of 10/24/64.

As usual, he was met by representatives of the International Department of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU). During the period from his arrival until the afternoon of 10/28/64, when he held discussions with LEONID I. BREZHNEV, First Secretary, CC, CPSU, CG 5824-S* had no formal discussions with any official of the CPSU or the Government of the USSR. He immediately prepared a letter requesting an interview with BREZHNEV and the time left was merely waiting for an answer to this request and arrangements for the interview. During this period he was in contact with a number of officials, including NIKOLAI MOSTOVETS, Head of the North and South American Section of the International Department, CC, CPSU, ALEKSEI GRECHUKHIN, assistant to MOSTOVETS, and TIMUR TIMOFEEV, Deputy Director, Institute for World Economy and International Affairs, Academy of Sciences of the USSR. However, none of these officials would discuss matters of importance with CG 5824-S* until after he would have had his interview with BREZHNEV. Subsequently, after the interview, which ended during the evening of 10/28/64, there was no time for him to engage in discussions with any officials since he then departed from his hotel at 6:30 a.m., 10/29/64, enroute to the U.S.

CG 5824-S* stated that in view of the acute interest and concern of the U.S. Government concerning this matter, he wished to waste no time before immediately conveying the contents of his discussions with BREZHNEV to the Bureau. Therefore, he departed Moscow at 9:15 a.m., 10/29/64 and by exerting all the influence at his command was successful in arriving in the U.S. that same evening, clearing U.S. Customs, NYC, at approximately 8:45 p.m., 10/29/64.

CG 134-46 Sub B

The information set forth in the enclosed letterhead memorandum contains the essence of all CG 5824-S*'s discussions on this important matter. While not set forth for obvious reasons of protecting the identity of the source, the following was the order followed in this discussion:

The discussion opened in the office of M. A. SUSLOV located in Bldg. #1, the Main Bldg. of the CC, CPSU, located on "Old Place" Street, Moscow, USSR. Present were: SUSLOV, PONOMAREV, ANDROPOV, RASHIDOV, and another member of the Presidium whose name CG 5824-S* couldn't recall. NIKOLAI MOSTOVETS and IGOR MICHAELOV, translator and member of the International Dept., specializing in trade union matters, were also present. PONOMAREV advised CG 5824-S* that SUSLOV had just come out of the hospital in order to participate in this discussion with CG 5824-S*. From CG 5824-S*'s own observations, SUSLOV was in obvious ill health; he was noticeably flushed, was continually coughing violently and throughout the discussion was sipping hot tea and taking medicine. Upon occasion during the discussion SUSLOV was so overcome by his coughing that he would request PONOMAREV to continue the discussion in his stead. The discussion was begun by SUSLOV who immediately stated that they would join BREZHNEV in his office later in the discussion. After approximately 15 minutes of the discussion, ANDROPOV, RASHIDOV and the other unidentified member of the Presidium excused themselves and left. After a period of discussion with the above-named individuals, SUSLOV suggested that they join BREZHNEV and they all proceeded to BREZHNEV's office. According to CG 5824-S*, BREZHNEV was very fit and healthy looking, with a fine tan. He was dressed in a black sport shirt and was wearing a jacket. He acted and spoke in a very vigorous and confident manner. CG 5824-S* was introduced to BREZHNEV, whom he knew well from previous meetings, by all CG 5824-S*'s titles in the CP, USA, including membership on the National Board and the National Committee and as International Secretary of the CP, USA. BREZHNEV made a point of telling CG 5824-S* that he was the first American whom BREZHNEV had seen, that he was glad to see him. After CG 5824-S* gave the usual comradely greetings of the CP, USA, BREZHNEV stated, "We love your Party and I hope you will give my greetings to GUS HALL and your leadership."

CG 134-46 Sub B

Following discussion for sometime with BREZHNEV, they bade him good-by and returned to SUSLOV's office where the discussion continued, led primarily by PONOMAREV in view of the fact that SUSLOV was now coughing so violently that he found it too difficult to continue.

While from the enclosed letterhead memorandum it might appear that all of these individuals were present during the entire discussion, the above summary sets forth the manner in which this discussion actually took place. In reading the letterhead memorandum, the identification of the speaker, we believe, denotes the various stages of the discussion.

DISCUSSION BY MEMBERS OF CENTRAL COMMITTEE, COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE
SOVIET UNION, REGARDING REMOVAL OF
N. S. KHRUSHCHEV AND SINO-SOVIET
RELATIONS, OCTOBER, 1964

During late October, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

During late October, 1964, a discussion concerning the background and events surrounding the removal of Nikita S. Khrushchev from his positions as leader of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) and the Government of the USSR was held in Moscow, USSR, and among the participants in this discussion were the following leading members of the Central Committee of the CPSU: Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary and Member of the Presidium, Central Committee, CPSU; M. A. Suslov, Secretary and Member of the Presidium, Central Committee, CPSU; Yu. V. Andropov, Secretary, Central Committee, CPSU; Boris N. Ponomarev, Secretary, Central Committee, CPSU; and, Sh. R. Rashidov, Candidate Member of the Presidium, Central Committee, CPSU, and First Secretary of the Uzbek Communist Party.

At the outset of the discussion, Suslov noted that although discussion of dissatisfaction with the methods of work of Nikita S. Khrushchev had been going on for a long time and against some of Comrade Khrushchev's policies, it was not an easy matter to discuss some of these matters in the public because this would mean an open struggle which would affect the very fabric of Soviet society. Suslov continued that it was therefore necessary for them to hold the cards close to their chests. In essence, Suslov's comments continued as follows:

First of all, we want to emphasize that there is no change in our political line affecting domestic policy or the line of our foreign policy. Our general line, our principles remain unshakeable. In fact, we did not even discuss these problems of policy at the last meeting of our Central Committee; we only confirmed them. These were not the things we discussed.

The principles of the unity of the communist movement remain and the discussion at this last meeting of the Central Committee and before this at the meeting of the Presidium centered around Comrade Khrushchev. We discussed his positive features, including his good general line which he had developed against Stalin, for peace and so on. But already a year ago, in the practice of these policies, to begin with on domestic questions, Comrade Khrushchev changed for the worse. When he worked collectively and consulted us, we supported him, but when he started to work in a bad way and all by himself, and was no longer able to work collectively, violating the rules of the Party, we tried to check him. But in many cases he resisted us and would not take our advice either on policy or on some practical questions. He began to think that he had a monopoly of the truth. So, we decided to discuss some of these things with Comrade Khrushchev.

In early October we called a meeting of the Presidium. All 24 members of the Presidium were present, even the alternates. This meeting lasted two days under the chairmanship of Comrade Khrushchev. We had a very sharp and critical discussion in a very democratic way. Any member who wanted to speak, did. Comrade Khrushchev listened attentively but every now and then objected to criticism. Everyone did speak and expressed his point of view.

At the end of the two-day meeting, Comrade Khrushchev made a speech in which he said he thought that most of the criticism of him was correct. He said he did not think he could carry through his duties. He said perhaps it is his age and health making it difficult for him to cope with the all-sided nature of his work. He is beginning to feel tense and nervous and perhaps this may account for him very often of late saying some silly things.

In essence, Comrade Khrushchev said, "I understand all of you, and I have trust in you. On the one hand, it is very painful for me to hear this criticism. But, on the other hand, I see and am proud of the way this cadre has grown and this is the cadre that can take my place."

Comrade Khrushchev then wrote a statement addressed to the Central Committee, CPSU, the essence of which is as follows: In view of my advanced age and bad state of health, I ask the Central Committee to relieve me of my job as First Secretary of the Party, as Chairman of the Council of Ministers, and from my position in the Presidium. I pledge to the Party, the working class, and the people of the Soviet Union that I will work for the remainder of my life for the Party and for Communism."

Then, the Central Committee discussed this statement. They decided that they would hold a plenary session of the Central Committee to include all alternate members and control commission members. There were about 400 people present at this plenary session of the Central Committee. Scores of people, if not hundreds, participated in this discussion of the plenary session of the Central Committee. They took up the question of Comrade Khrushchev and they voted for a decision to relieve Comrade Khrushchev of his duties as requested by his letter but to keep him in the Central Committee, so in this way to keep his good merits in mind, because it is no small thing to be a member of the Central Committee.

The entire Party is informed of this decision, from the top to the bottom, even to the smallest group on a farm or in a factory. We have eleven and a half million members in the CPSU. They, in turn, informed others, including non-Party persons. So, we can say that as of this time at least fifty million people know of the decisions made at this meeting of the Central Committee.

This decision was received very calmly by our people. These are not the times of Stalin. The people were not afraid. They have confidence in the Central Committee that works collectively. They have confidence in the Central Committee that when an individual of its leaders makes a mistake, he can be replaced because the collective supersedes the individual. This plenary session of the Central Committee, as well as the discussions on the decisions of these meetings, were organized in the most democratic manner, and this is why the decision expresses fully the will of the people. We want to stress that the essence of our line remains the same and we will pursue it without caprices or subjectivism.

We consider what we did and the manner in which we did it normal. This is our conception of democracy. It differs from bourgeois democracy, but this is our democracy. We are assured that the people in the Soviet Union are satisfied and confident. Although such differences existed for a long period, we are not too excitable by nature; however, we do discuss things. We had our differences and we discussed them. But it was difficult to discuss them because by that time Comrade Khrushchev was built into a demigod by some of his advisers, hangers-on, etc.

At this point, Leonid Brezhnev began to speak. He stated in essence as follows:

We are going to continue the fight for peace and co-existence with all countries. We are going to continue to develop our policy of fraternalism in our relations with all Parties and we are going to continue to give help as much as we are able to give.

Our Party received the decision of the Central Committee with unanimity. There were no difficulties after Comrade Khrushchev was removed. We did not have to organize the rank and file of the Party for support. The rank and file was ready. This demonstrates the maturity of the CPSU and its Marxist-Leninist position and if there were some sharp differences in the past, in time these will be healed.

Comrade Khrushchev worked alone. He not only replaced committees in the Party, but he even replaced departments of the government. First of all, I am willing to bet that United States Secretary of State Dean Rusk was able to use more initiative than our Foreign Minister Gromyko could under Comrade Khrushchev. He carried our Foreign Office in his pocket.

For example, he would send Comrade A. I. Adzhubei (Editor of "Izvestia") out on trips. He would have discussions with Chancellors and Ministers of other countries. Now, you would think he would show us the notes upon his return, but he would not. They would remain the personal property of Comrades Adzhubei and Khrushchev. The latest example was the case of West Germany. We did not know of Comrade Adzhubei's trip to see Ludwig Erhard (Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany) or what agreements he reached. We were embarrassed and so was the Foreign Office when the Government of the German Democratic Republic asked what agreements were reached. We did not know. Adzhubei along with A. Sityukov (Editor of "Pravda") became the private envoys of Comrade Khrushchev. They became policy-makers replacing the Presidium and departments of the government.

Or take his travels. The foreign newspapers kept a count of the great number of trips that he made out of the country, but he would organize these trips without consultations and just go. On these trips he would discuss policies or would make concrete decisions all by himself, even on foreign aid. He would promise foreign aid and send it to a country. He would have the reserves of our treasury at his disposal and he would use them up. We never knew what we would be confronted with next.

Then Suslov stated that on Comrade Khrushchev's trip to Egypt, 43 members of his family were supposed to have traveled with him, but the Party had no voice in the number of people to accompany him.

Brezhnev continued: We have had a hard time in agriculture, especially in the last two years of drought. We think that if Comrade Khrushchev would have listened to some of our scientists and to the local farm organizations, rather than accepting a crazy idea that we should plant corn from the Artic Circle to the Black Sea, we might not have had such shortages and we would not have had to take our currency and buy six million tons of grain abroad. Worse than that, some of this grain was sent directly to other countries, even Egypt. Our valuable reserves were being used up by the decisions of one man.

This last year, even during the grain shortage, Comrade Khrushchev made trips abroad and our people would watch him on television dedicating this or that, and here they were suffering from shortages and they began to resent this. How can a leader of our country spend a good part or most of his time abroad when we have such difficulties?

This is what we mean when we say that the people accepted our decision. They feel relieved. Every other day he would come up with some new scheme on organization or reorganization. The last thing he came up with was to form 17 different economic divisions in our country which would have created complete chaos, particularly in agriculture, and then do you know that the week of our plenum he had printed in our press an article by that rich farmer in the United States, Garst, about farming which was not a Marxist approach to our problems. We might even say that Garst replaced some of our Marxian ideas in the mind of Comrade Khrushchev.

Brezhnev then cited other examples and mentioned how those around Khrushchev began to build up the cult of his personality. If photographs were being taken, it was always Khrushchev being featured. Brezhnev stated that the Party could not stand it any more.

Brezhnev continued: Comrade Khrushchev would set up special committees divorced from the Party and from the farmers and such a committee would set up quotas, etc., for farmers in a given area. As a result, some of the best people were demobilized. The collective farmers could not understand why they did not have a say on what they would raise on their farms. Comrade Khrushchev had schemes for special boards on egg production, cattle, dairy products, etc.

Brezhnev then commented upon Khrushchev's habit of talking off the cuff while abroad. He mentioned Khrushchev's famous "We will bury you" speech. Brezhnev stated that it is inconceivable that a leader of a country professing a policy of peaceful co-existence would then turn around and say "We will bury you." Brezhnev stated that that is not the policy of the USSR but that now they can't get rid of that statement. Brezhnev cited this as an example of the damage that Khrushchev had done to the Soviet Union with his off the cuff remarks.

Brezhnev concluded his remarks by emphasizing that the USSR is not going to depart from its principled stand in favor of peaceful co-existence.

Then Boris N. Ponomarev began to speak: I can also add that there were Parties abroad that could not see the negative side of Comrade Khrushchev. But the Soviet people knew, especially those in agriculture. The numerous reorganizations in agriculture affected our people. They felt that if there is a change today made by Comrade Khrushchev, there may be another one tomorrow. This affected each and every Soviet farm. When Comrade Khrushchev first said "corn from the North Pole to the South," the people began to call him "the corn man" and this was very harmful to our agriculture. Constantly, Comrade Khrushchev proposed new administrative measures to solve problems rather than concrete measures.

Now, we realize that the weather was a factor for the last two years, but some of these administrative measures only aggravated things. Because weather is such a large factor in our country, we need to think scientifically and we need to plan and measure. But Comrade Khrushchev thought he knew agriculture more than all of the experts combined and despite their advice to the contrary. Some of his mistakes resulted in agriculture shifting to the private sector and this resulted in more shortages and neglect of agriculture.

Comrade Khrushchev, himself, criticized Stalin for commandism-from-the-top, but he did the same thing himself. The members of the Presidium and the Central Committee were for a number of years trying to change Comrade Khrushchev. Sometimes he listened, but it became more difficult and he listened less and his negative side became more dominant. Finally, the leadership decided that we were not going to compromise any more. During the later period, Comrade Khrushchev's negative side became very obvious. Not only did he get material retyped and printed in the paper praising him, but he used to get letters from the ranks. A good number showed dissatisfaction with some of his suggestions, especially in agriculture. But he would only reprint the letters of praise and circulate them among the Party leadership.

We took all of these things into account when we made the change. The changes we made are the result going back to the 20th Congress decisions. The Central Committee made the change in a democratic way and demonstrated that it knows how to use the Leninist method and provided for a continuation of leadership.

Suslov then stated: You know Comrade Brezhnev is no accident. It was only last June that Comrade Khrushchev suggested that he be put on the Secretariat. Comrade Aleksei Kosygin was for many years the First Deputy Prime Minister and has a broad knowledge of industry and foreign affairs. The Presidium has known Comrade Kosygin for many years. And Comrade Khrushchev said that he knows of no better men to work in these capacities. After all, Comrade Khrushchev himself nominated them.

Ponomarev then continued: No doubt the bourgeois press will try to use this. They will continue the slanders. But these will disappear and the Parties even in the capitalist countries can show that this proves the strength of the CPSU. The general line cannot be the work of one man; it is the product of the collective.

Why did we not show open criticism earlier? Well, because that can be used by the enemy. They would try to develop these rifts and the imperialists would take advantage of this. Remember, our criticism is not just of a First Secretary. If we started open criticism earlier, we would have to criticize our own Premier and First Secretary, and the bourgeoisie would have received a false impression and misunderstood these criticisms.

There were critical discussions at plenary sessions of the Central Committee and at meetings of the Presidium. There was criticism in the past but it became more difficult to continue. Instead of calling a plenary session of the Central Committee limited to 400, Comrade Khrushchev would turn it into a session of 4,000 to 5,000 people. How can you criticize someone in front of that many people? It got so that those elected to the Central Committee actually lost their voice. We told him that the size of the plenary sessions he called was actually an effort to avoid criticism. Comrade Khrushchev finally admitted that he had lost the ability to listen.

But we do have an argument that the removal of an individual is not everything. We still have the line of the 20th, 21st, and 22nd Congresses. They continue unchanged. The Soviet Government has told all other governments that these policies will continue. In meeting arguments, we should explain to comrades that during these critical days Comrade Khrushchev, himself, was the chairman of these meetings. It was not done in his absence. It was democratic. The democratic majority did what they had to do. In the future we may talk more openly about some of these things. Right now, we are limiting some of these things to discussion within the Parties and we do not want some of the details to get out because they might be distorted by the capitalist press and cause misunderstanding. We are preparing a letter concerning the change in our leadership which will be circulated among all the Parties, but this letter will not contain some of these details about which we have been speaking.

Concerning the question of strengthening the unity of the world communist movement and Sino-Soviet relations, we are going to continue and will hold the meeting of the preparatory commission for the World Conference of Communist and Workers Parties. At this time we expect that that meeting will still be held on December 15, 1964. We will soon send out a letter to the 25 other member Parties on the preparatory committee and it will ask the participants for suggestions on how this meeting should be conducted.

We do not believe that this meeting should be like the other meetings. The December meeting may extend over a period of two to three months. We will suggest that the committee meet for three or four days and then adjourn; then come back a month or two later for a short session; and, then come back a month or more later. We suggest that we do not have one continuous meeting for a long time. We expect the first session to last no more than four days. During the periods of adjournment, the delegates can then return to their countries for Party consultations. The delegations may also spend the time between sessions vacationing in the Soviet Union.

Concerning the polemics between the CPSU and the Communist Party of China (CPC), the CPSU proposed a long time ago to stop these polemics, but the CPC refused. They have stopped the campaign against us for the time being, but in the mass organizations in their country and in other countries they still keep attacking us. We will continue in the same principled line of Marxism-Leninism. This is our line. On this, also, the Presidium will once again confirm this line. I repeat, we are not going to give up our principles and we will reaffirm them as we will at the December meeting.

Ponomarev pointed out that the CPSU disagreed with the contents of the "memorandum" prepared by Palmiro Togliatti, former General Secretary of the Communist Party (CP) of Italy, just before his death in the USSR. According to Ponomarev, this memorandum was meant solely for discussion with the CPSU.

Following Togliatti's death, the CPSU was in contact with the CP of Italy but were unable to dissuade them from publishing the memorandum and accepting it as a principled program of the CP of Italy without first holding discussions concerning it with the CPSU. Ponomarev stated that they then had to publish Togliatti's memorandum in the Soviet press which they had not wanted to do.

Am deeply concerned about the three alleged items printed in the "New York Times" dated October 30, 1964, giving reasons for change in new leadership in CPSU and in USSR. These three items in the alleged document if mishandled can be severely damaging to our Parties and to our countries.

Item #3 - "Khrushchev responsible for India-China border conflict."

Any of the alleged explanations that absolves United States imperialism for Cuban crisis (Item #1) can be disastrous to the cause of peace in USA and anti-imperialism. Any such explanation would turn world leaders into FALSIFIERS.

Regarding Item #2, any alleged explanation that the ideological dispute became a personal feud between Khrushchev and Mao would undermine and undercut all forces who have fought for a Marxist-Leninist line and against the wrong principles of CP of China.

Regarding Item #3, any explanation that would give credence to, and justify, aggressive actions on borders through military means would wreak havoc on peaceful settlements of disputes.

URGE extreme care in the discussion of whatever weaknesses did exist in this area because they touch on very fundamental questions that would vitally affect policies in the future in our Parties.

As reported to me by Morris Childs none of these three specific points were discussed in your talks with him while in USSR.

While reports in the "New York Times" may be false or distorted I would again urge extreme caution and again clarity with regard to these specific points.

Heartfelt thanks for the extraordinary courtesy and speed in talking with Morris Childs which is of great importance to me and our Secretariat.

Your immediate answer clarifying these three points is eagerly awaited.

SUGGESTIONS REGARDING REVIEW OF HISTORIC
MATERIAL MAINTAINED IN THE SOVIET UNION
REGARDING THE COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

According to Nikolai V. Mostovets, Head of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), both the Lenin Library and the Marxist-Leninist Institute in Moscow, USSR, contain large collections of historical documents and writings dealing with the American Communist Party. Since both of these collections of documents and writings are considered extremely valuable by the CPSU, they would like to have the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) consider sending some American scholar to the USSR to look the papers over, review, and study them. The CPSU feels that such a program would be both of interest and value to the CP, USA.

The following information was supplied by a source which has furnished reliable information in the past.

During the latter part of October, 1964, A. M. Romyantsev, a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and Editor-in-Chief of the "World Marxist Review," official theoretical journal of the world communist movement published in Prague, Czechoslovakia, was known to have been working on a confidential assignment. Romyantsev was endeavoring to establish a new research body, possibly in Budapest, Hungary, which would hold regular sessions to discuss problems of the world communist movement. Romyantsev hoped that in time this body would evolve into a coordinating body of the world communist movement.

According to Romyantsev, the "World Marxist Review" has outlived its usefulness as a coordinating body of the world communist movement in view of the fact that the Communist Party of China and the Albanian Party of Labor have withdrawn their representatives from the Editorial Board of the "World Marxist Review."

On 10/28/64, NY 694-S* furnished the following information:

On 10/28/64, NY 694-S* conferred with GUS HALL, who was in a particularly bad mood, stating that he will never forgive those "G-- d-- lousy Russians" for their lack of trust in him and also in leaders of the other CP's throughout the world. He said he could not understand why he had not received advance information with respect to the change in the Soviet political situation. He further stated that it was a ridiculous situation which required that the Russians "sneak into the woods" to confer with the Poles.

[Handwritten initials]

HALL also said that in the event the Soviets decide "to play games" with the Chinese, he, himself, will be politically finished. He stated that his remaining as leader of the CPUSA would be inconsistent with his previous support of KHRUSHCHEV's position in the ideological dispute with MAO. HALL said that GIL GREEN and ROBERT THOMPSON are "out for his blood" and that they would be in a position to "murder him" in the event that the Soviets decide to "play ball" with the Chinese.

HALL further stated that when he was in Hawaii recently he learned that there was not a single CP member there. Ten years ago, he said, there were between 300 and 400 members of the CP residing in Hawaii. The situation there is so bad, he said, that only one copy of "The Worker," of "People's World," and of "Political Affairs" is delivered to the Hawaiian Islands. When he attempted to make contact with JACK HALL, leader of the Longshoremen's Union in the Hawaiian Islands, JACK HALL refused to see him. GUS HALL characterized JACK HALL as "a lousy opportunist." HALL stated that while he was in Hawaii, he conferred with people who are much more politically influential than JACK HALL, and he remarked that he and ARNOLD JOHNSON, who had accompanied him to Hawaii, had taken steps to set up the nucleus of a CP in Hawaii.

Information herein regarding HALL's trip to Hawaii is being furnished to the Honolulu Office by separate communication.

It should be noted that the funds previously maintained by CG 5824-S* at the Mid-America National Bank, Chicago, have now been transferred in total to safe deposit boxes maintained at the Michigan Avenue National Bank and American National Bank, both Chicago, Illinois. This transfer of funds from Mid-America National Bank was made by CG 5824-S* in order that all of this money might be accessible to NY 694-S*. The boxes at the Michigan Avenue National Bank and American National Bank are both maintained in the true identities of CG 5824-S* and NY 694-S* and, therefore, in case of accident involving CG 5824-S* during the current Solo Mission, where he is utilizing a cover legend, there will be no problem in connection with retrieving funds maintained in Chicago by CG 5824-S*. The source felt that such a precaution was necessary and feasible and the Chicago Office concurs. NY 694-S* is aware of the fact that the funds maintained by CG 5824-S* have been transferred as noted above.

ReCGairtel dated 9/24/64.

Reairtel notes that on 9/24/64 CG 5824-S* received from JOHN WILLIAMSON, a functionary of the CP of Great Britain, a brief communication dated 9/21/64 which read in part as follows:

"When HENRY was in Europe, he met ISOBEL and husband. The latter is 'crying' about no advice or direction on his end of the business. I do not know the validity of his moans but now will leave it in your hands."

At the time, neither CG 5824-S* nor NY 694-S* was able to identify "ISOBEL and husband."

As a result, when CG 5824-S* was in London during the latter part of October, 1964, he did, during his contact with JOHN WILLIAMSON, raise the question concerning the identity of the individuals who had been referred to in his note of 9/21/64. During this meeting, WILLIAMSON advised that the people he had referred to in this communication were MISCHA ALTMAN and wife, former CP, USA members, now in Vienna, Austria. WILLIAMSON noted that the ALTMANS had been traveling all over Europe. When he met them, they indicated they considered themselves a part of the CP, USA and they complained ✓ bitterly that they were not getting any direction whatsoever from the CP, USA. He further noted that in his conversation with MISCHA ALTMAN, the latter had informed him that although he could return to the U.S. at any time, his wife, for reasons unexplained, was not able to do so.

The above is for information of the Bureau and New York. It is suggested that if CG 5824-S* has not already informed NY 694-S* of the identity of the above people, the New York Office should make this information available to him in light of the previous inquiry.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau are three copies and for the New York Office one copy of an informant's statement captioned, "Information Concerning John Williamson, Current Member, Communist Party of Great Britain, and Arrangement for Contact."

The information appearing in the enclosed informant's statement was furnished by CG 5824-S*, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on 10/29 and 11/2/64 to SAs WALTER A. BOYLE and RICHARD W. HANSEN.

In connection with his contact in London, England, with JOHN WILLIAMSON, CG 5824-S* advised that this meeting was arranged through a telephone call placed to JOHN WILLIAMSON's wife MAE, at her place of employment. CG 5824-S* stated that in making this telephone call to MAE WILLIAMSON, he identified himself only as "DAVID" and indicated only that he desired to see "JOHNNIE." MAE WILLIAMSON immediately acknowledged that she was aware of the caller's identity and stated that she would have JOHNNIE at the usual location, the back room, in a couple of hours. According to CG 5824-S*, the usual location was the Charing Cross Suburban Station in London, a large commuter terminal, in which there are a number of Lyons (ph) Restaurants located, all of which have easy access from the street and at which an individual can discreetly and securely meet someone. WILLIAMSON does appear as scheduled at

INFORMATION CONCERNING JOHN WILLIAMSON,
CURRENT MEMBER, COMMUNIST PARTY OF GREAT BRITAIN, AND ARRANGEMENT FOR CONTACT

John Williamson, a former functionary of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) who departed the United States a number of years ago and is now a member of the National Executive Committee, CP of Great Britain, and resides in London, England, during the latter part of October, 1964, advised as follows:

At the present time he is working on a research project for the CP of Great Britain. This research project, not described, will probably be concluded by the end of the present year. At this time he will also probably lose his Party position and since he holds no position will probably not be elected to the National Executive Committee of the CP of Great Britain.

Williamson also noted at this time that he was doing considerable writing for the "London Daily Worker," publication of the CP of Great Britain, and he has articles appearing in the paper on an average of perhaps one to two times a week.

In regard to the autobiography dealing with that portion of his life spent in the United States on which he has been working, Williamson noted that it is just about complete. He is sending two manuscripts of this book to the United States, one directly to "The Worker" in New York, and the other is being sent to a member of his wife's family in New York. He noted that he was sending the manuscripts in this manner so that if one was lost, the other would get through.

In regard to future contacts by mail, Williamson furnished the following address and noted that mail received through this address would be immediately known to have originated from the CP, USA:

~~X~~
Dick Childs
3 Redberry Grove
London, S.E. 26, England

For personal contact, Williamson noted that arrangements for this can be made through a telephone call to his wife, (Mrs. John) Mae Williamson, at her place of employment. She works the hours

England

8:30 a.m. to 4:45 p.m., daily, and all calls to her pass through a switchboard. The number to call for such a contact was as follows: BER 2033, Ext. 107.

If it is desired to call him directly at home, Williamson can be contacted through telephone number Forest Hill 6-444 listed in the name of Sprague.

A leading official of the Communist Party, USA, was recently in contact with officials of the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union. The Communist Party, USA, official expressed grave concern about an article which appeared in the October 30, 1964, issue of "The New York Times," written by Henry Tanner, Moscow correspondent of "The New York Times." Tanner's article reported that there was circulating in the Soviet Communist Party organizations, and among many foreign delegations in the Soviet Union, a 40-page "bill of particulars" against deposed Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. The official of the Communist Party, USA, pointed out that, according to Tanner's article, the alleged 40-page document contained many damaging statements relative to errors committed by Khrushchev, in particular errors in Khrushchev's Cuban policy.

The Communist Party, USA, official urged that extreme caution be utilized in the discussion of whatever errors Khrushchev had committed since such weaknesses touch on very fundamental questions that vitally affect the policies of the Communist Party, USA. For example, the official of the Communist Party, USA, noted that criticism of Khrushchev's Cuban policy absolves "United States imperialism" for the Cuban crisis and could be disastrous to the cause of peace in the United States.

On 11/2/64, NY 694-S* advised that during his personal meeting with V. CHUCHUKIN in the late evening of 10/31/64 at Armstrong they also discussed other matters in addition to the message for GUS HALL set out in retel.

THOMAS [Signature]

However, with regard to the message set out in retel, CHUCHUKIN stated that it was to be emphasized that the CPSU is ready to exploit the existing possibility of strengthening the unity of the international Communist movement on the principle of Marxism-Leninism and states categorically that they will abide by the principles as laid down in the Moscow conferences of 1957 and 1960. CHUCHUKIN also stated that despite the Chinese suggestion that Yugoslavia should not be invited to the November 7th celebration, the Soviets did, in fact, send an invitation to the Yugoslav CP.

LIN [Signature]

With regard to other matters, CHUCHUKIN was pleased to hear that NY 694-S* was receiving the radio messages O.K.

and he, CHUCHUKIN, stated that he heard NY 694-S*'s walky-talky very clearly. CHUCHUKIN advised that on November 11, 1964, at 2:40 PM, at 120 Wall Street, NYC (Midland Trust Building, 7th floor), he will deliver the $100,000.00 to NY 694-S*, and if they do not meet on that date, then the delivery will be made on November 18, 1964, at the same time and place. (NY 694-S* is contemplating changing the 11/11/64 date because of the holiday in the financial district.) CHUCHUKIN advised NY 694-S* that they will have to make some changes to expedite their personal contacts and made the following revisions.

CHUCHUKIN stated that when the Soviets want to contact NY 694-S*, they will place tape at the previously-designated spot at the Wall Street Station, at 8:00 AM on days other than radio broadcast days, with the following intentions:

- 1) If one strip of black tape appears, this means NY 694-S*
- is to have a personal meet (Uncle) with the Soviets the following night at 7:05 PM. - (Uncle Elliott is next)
- 2) If two strips of black tape appear, this means NY 694-S*
- is to pick up a drop (Sister) from the Soviets the following night at 7:15 PM. - (Sister Carol is next)
- 3) If one strip of brown or red tape appears, this means
- NY 694-S* is to have a personal meet that same night at 7:05 PM.
- 4) If two strips of brown or red tape appear, this means
- NY 694-S* is to pick up a drop that same night at 7:15 PM.

When drops are cleared by NY 694-S*, he is to call the phone numbers, according to following schedule, at 9:15 PM (Ring 3 times - no answer):

November	-	MU 6-9388
December-January	-	WA 9-9482
February-March	-	YU 9-9212

NY 100-134637

When drops are cleared by the Soviets, they will call MU 4-9774 at 9:15 PM (Ring 3 times - no answer) to acknowledge clearance to NY 694-S*.

CHUGHUKIN stated that with regard to the walky-talky, the following signals will be in effect for NY 694-S*:

- 1) Four (4) dashes indicates NY 694-S* wants a personal meet with the Soviets on the following day at 7:05 PM.
- 2) Two (2) dashes indicates NY 694-S* wants to utilize the Micro-Transmitter (Girls) the following day at 2:40 PM. (The next Girl is Goldsmiths on Nassau Street, NYC, and the following one is Woolworth's, 42nd Street and Third Avenue, NYC.)
- 3) Six (6) dots indicates NY 694-S* wants the Soviets to pick-up drop the following day at 7:15 PM.

It should be noted that the phone numbers utilized by NY 694-S* and the Soviets to acknowledge drops are public telephones which have been previously set out (NY airtels 9/28/64 and 10/6/64), with the exceptions:

Reurnirtel 11/1/64 in captioned matter, a copy of which was furnished New York.

Reairtel enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) entitled "Discussion by Members of Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, Regarding Removal of N. S. Khrushchev and Sino-Soviet Relations, October, 1964." Pages nine and ten of the LHM contain information furnished by Boris Ponomarev to CG 5824-S* disclosing that the Soviets are preparing a document concerning the change in the Soviet leadership which will be circulated among all the communist parties. L

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has personally advised the Director that he would be very desirous of obtaining a copy of the document which the Soviets are preparing for distribution throughout the world as to the reasons for Khrushchev's dismissal or resignation.

In view of the foregoing, you should alert CG 5824-S* and New York should alert NY 694-S* to the necessity to promptly furnish your office a copy of the above-mentioned document in the event it should come into the possession of those informants.

The plain text of the second message, which was in cipher code, is as follows:

"Do not deliver money on November 11 which is a holiday. Instead will be at 120 Wall on November 18."

The above message reflects that NY 694-S* is cancelling an appointment with the Soviets to receive $100,000.00 on November 11 and is requesting that the delivery of the said money be postponed until November 18, 1964.

The plain text of the third message, which was partly coded, is as follows:

"November 5, 1964

"Dear Comrades

"Again our warmest fraternal greetings and salutations to the party of Lenin and its Leninist leadership on the occasion of the 47th anniversary of the great October Revolution.

"GUS HALL sends many thanks for your prompt and comradely response to the questions raised and your expose of the falsehoods and fabrications of the bourgeois press. Also thanks for the information given to me and passed on to our entire Secretariat.

"Our warmest fraternal greetings and salutations on this holiday. Long live Proletarian Internationalism and the strengthening of fraternal bonds between the CPSU and the CPUSA! Long live communism! Long live peace! Long live the friendship between the American and Soviet peoples!

"Comradely greetings

"MORRIS CHILDS"

NY 100-134637

The plain text of the fourth message, which was partly coded, is as follows:

"When leaving USSR, Mr. and Mrs. PHIL BART want to go home via Warsaw. Please arrange for this and inform them.

"Also, James Tormey wishes to go to Warsaw to visit his brother-in-law.

"MORRIS CHILDS"

JAMES TORMEY's brother-in-law is HARRY YARIS, brother of TORMEY's wife, BETTY GANNETT. HARRY YARIS has been deported from the U. S.

The fifth message was a request that the Soviets notify PHILIP and CONNIE BART of an article in the "New York Daily News" of November 5, 1964, captioned "High Red's Wife Was MFY Aid." In this article, by MICHAEL CLENDENIN, it was reported that the wife of a member of the U. S. Communist Party's National Committee -- an officer of the Brooklyn Party organization in her own right -- was employed until recently as a secretary by Mobilization For Youth. The article further reported that the BARTS had left the USA by plane for Moscow.

ReNYtel to Bureau dated 10/29/64 and subsequent airtels to Bureau from Chicago setting forth information from CG 5824-S* as result of the 16th Solo Mission.

This airtel is being submitted for the purpose of recommending an award be made to CG 5824-S* in the amount of $1,000 and to his wife, CG 6653-S, in the amount of $500 for their accomplishment of the 16th Solo Mission which resulted in the obtaining of outstanding information under the condition of extraordinary risks.

As the Bureau is aware, CG 5824-S* and his wife departed from the U.S. on 10/19/64 via London, England, and Prague, Czechoslovakia, arriving in Moscow, USSR, on 10/24/64. They remained in the USSR until 10/29/64 at which time they returned to the U.S. via Prague, Czechoslovakia, and Paris, France.

While CG 5824-S* obtained certain other items of interest to the Government, of primary importance was the information obtained relative to the events and reasons surrounding the removal of NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV from his positions of leadership in the CP and Government of the Soviet Union. Coming upon the heels of KHRUSHCHEV's removal, which was announced to the world only on 10/15/64, CG 5824-S*'s trip was most timely. The information which CG 5824-S* obtained was from the highest possible sources in the Soviet Union, including LEONID I. BREZHNEV, himself, First Secretary of the CPSU, and M. A. SUSLOV, Secretary and member of the Presidium of the Central Committee, CPSU. I believe that this information furnished by CG 5824-S* is the most authoritative account yet received concerning the briefings being given to representatives of the CPs of the world who have been flocking to the USSR for an explanation of the precipitous removal of KHRUSHCHEV.

CG 5824-S* considered this information of such import to the Government of the U.S. that he was absolutely unsparing of his own health, although he is not strong, in insuring as rapid a return to the U.S. as possible. These discussions with BREZHNEV and others were not completed until the evening of 10/28/64, but by utilizing great initiative, CG 5824-S* was back in the U.S. by the evening of 10/29/64, so that a summary of this information had been telephonically furnished to the Bureau by the morning of 10/30/64.

In addition to the importance of the information obtained, there are other factors which contribute to my recommendation that CG 5824-S* and his wife are deserving of special recognition. Every such trip is inherently dangerous and requires enormous courage. As the Bureau is well aware, CG 5824-S* is in chronically poor health and in subjecting himself to the strain and rigors of such a long trip and the tensions of dealing at firsthand with the leadership of our enemies within the confines of the Iron Curtain, CG 5824-S* once again displayed an utter disregard for his own health, well-being, and safety. Again, his precipitous return to the U.S. in order that the information obtained would be as timely as possible forced him to forego sleep for approximately 48 hours which was most difficult for a man in his physical condition.

Relative to CG 6653-S, the recommendation for special recognition is based upon her own particular contributions to the success of this arduous and hazardous undertaking. As you will recall, this is the first such mission behind the Iron Curtain by CG 6653-S that she has made with the full knowledge of the true nature of the Solo operation. Her full acceptance of the concomitant dangers bears testimony to her dedication to the Bureau, her country, and to her husband. The rigors of this difficult mission were attested to by the personal observations of the contacting agents who have advised me that she returned to the U.S. in a totally exhausted condition.

CG 6653-S also made her own unique contribution on this mission. Her presence was of great value in increasing the security of CG 5824-S* during this trip. Intelligence agencies, both at home and abroad, are aware of the fact that communists from the U.S. may now travel (and particularly at this time of year in proximity to the Nov. 7th celebration) and the CPSU would expect them to be more alert to identities of travelers, especially those entering socialist countries. Therefore, the presence of CG 6653-S provided CG 5824-S* with additional cover, both in fact and also so as to satisfy the CPSU.

CG 6653-S also provided CG 5824-S* with assistance in the numerous travel arrangements which were required in travel of this nature which is of a more complicated nature than the normal direct trip. She was able to relieve CG 5824-S* of such additional burdens. Having CG 6653-S accompany CG 5824-S* was further of value in that she was able to be of assistance to him in the ministrations required by his health problems, shouldering whatever responsibilities and burdens she was able to, in order to free him of numerous worries and details during the course of the trip. She was also of assistance, both en route and returning, by aiding him in the concealment on her person of some of the numerous notes and documents which CG 5824-S* must bring with him on this mission. When CG 5824-S* was required to leave their hotel room while abroad but before entering the Bloc countries, CG 6653-S remained behind to keep watch over CG 5824-S*'s material, thus relieving him of the necessity of always carrying such items on his person.

Finally, since it was expected initially that this mission would be of long duration, CG 6653-S was required to present the excuse to her employer that her health required that she take a two-month leave of absence. This she did without hesitation and I believe it is pertinent to note that this has resulted in the loss of two months' wages amounting to over $1,000. While she did this without expectation of being compensated by the Bureau for this financial sacrifice, I do believe it should be considered in the overall evaluation of this request for special recognition of her contribution to the success of this operation.

Therefore, in light of the foregoing, I recommend that the Bureau approve an award to CG 5824-S* in the amount of $1,000 and to CG 6653-S in the amount of $500.

If the Bureau approves the above recommended awards, it is further recommended that letters from the Director to these informants be prepared as has been done in the past for CG 5824-S*. For the possible assistance of the Bureau, copies of recommended letters to these informants are being submitted as enclosures to this airtel.

In view of the fact that CG 5824-S* presently anticipates that he will again depart from the U.S. sometime in the vicinity of 11/20 or 21/64, it is requested that the Bureau give expeditious attention to this recommendation.

Dear Mrs. Childs,

Your recent contribution to the success of the mission abroad undertaken by your husband on behalf of our country has been brought to my attention, and I did not want this opportunity to pass without an expression of my personal gratitude.

As you know, the services to the nation being performed by your husband are unquestionably of the highest value in the defense of freedom. I want you to know that I consider your part in this most recent mission as contributing in no small measure to its success and the well-being of your husband. Your dedication and sacrifices are deserving of our highest measure of gratitude and admiration.

Dear Morris,

Once again it is my welcome task to express to you my personal appreciation and gratitude for another demonstration of your outstanding dedication and patriotism, evidenced by your recent successful mission on behalf of our country.

I wish to assure you that the most timely and important information with which you returned was brought to my personal attention and was immediately disseminated at the highest levels of Government. In view of the situation existing in the world today, I am sure that I need not tell you that the acquisition of this information from such highly placed sources is a major contribution to the security of our country.

May I extend to you my personal gratitude and the gratitude of our Government for the outstanding manner in which you have performed this most difficult assignment at the cost of great personal risk and sacrifice.

Reference is made to my letter dated October 21, 1964, captioned as above, concerning the meeting of Communist Parties of Latin and Central America scheduled to be held in Havana, Cuba, in November, 1964.

Sources which have furnished reliable information in the past have advised as follows:

There is a good possibility that this conference may not be held. A number of Latin-American Communist Parties, like the major Parties in Argentina and Chile, have indicated that they were not in favor of such a conference and do not desire to be "openly tied up with Cuba."

L

In addition the Communist Party of the Soviet Union would like to discourage such international contacts between the Parties unless such contacts were initiated by the Soviets.

Due to the sensitive nature of our sources, we have classified this communication "~~TOP SECRET~~."

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, during late October, 1964, advised as follows:

In the latter part of October, 1964, a spokesman for the Communist Party (CP) of Great Britain advised that Claudia Jones, a former national functionary of the CP, USA, who had been deported a number of years ago from the United States, is now in London, England, having just returned from a trip to the Peoples Republic of China. In the Peoples Republic of China, Jones met with and talked to MAO Tse-tung, Chairman, CP of China. In her meetings with MAO, the latter "encouraged" Jones to continue her struggle for the CP of China political line. As a result, Jones adheres closely to the CP of China point of view and is in constant squabbles with the leadership of the CP of Great Britain.

COMMUNIST PARTY OF GREAT BRITAIN

Claudia Jones

Claudia Jones, a former national functionary of the Communist Party, USA, who had been deported from the United States a number of years ago, is now in London, England. She recently returned from a trip to the Peoples Republic of China. In the Peoples Republic of China, Jones met and talked with MAO Tse-tung, Chairman of the Communist Party of China. In her meetings with MAO the latter "encouraged" Jones to continue her struggle for the political line of the Communist Party of China. As a result, Jones adheres closely to the point of view of the Communist Party of China and is in "constant squabbles" with the leadership of the Communist Party of Great Britain.

William and Celia Pomeroy

William J. Pomeroy and his Philippine-born wife, Celia, are now residing in London, England. Pomeroy is a United States citizen who was active in the Communist Hukbalahap Rebellion in the Philippine Islands. As a result of his participation in this rebellion, Pomeroy served time in a Philippine prison. While Pomeroy is not considered a member of the Communist Party of Great Britain, he is considered a "good person" and the Communist Party of Great Britain does have some contact with him.

The foregoing was furnished by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past. Because of the sensitive nature of our sources, it is essential that the contents of this memorandum be afforded careful security and its use restricted to a need-to-know basis.

INFORMATION REGARDING COMMUNIST PARTY OF THE SOVIET UNION WILLINGNESS TO ACCEPT
JAMES MOORE OF WISCONSIN FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT IN SOVIET UNION U.S.S.R.

It will be recalled that several months ago the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) directed an inquiry to the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) concerning their willingness to accept one James Moore for medical treatment and rehabilitation in the Soviet Union. Moore, a young CP member from Wisconsin, had been injured in an automobile accident and was financially unable to secure the necessary medical attention he needed in the United States. In view of Moore's financial situation and need for medical attention, the CP, USA had initiated their request of the CPSU.

In late October, 1964, the matter of [redacted] together with [redacted] coming to the Soviet Union for medical treatment was personally discussed with representatives of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CPSU. At this time, these representatives of the International Department formally agreed that the CPSU would invite the Moores to the Soviet Union and give James Moore the necessary medical treatment. However, the CPSU first desired that they be furnished a complete medical history regarding Moore.

INFORMATION REGARDING OTTO WANGERIN AND POSSIBLE MEDICAL TREATMENT IN USSR OR
CZECHOSLOVAKIA

A number of months ago, the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) made inquiry of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) and of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia (CP of CZ) regarding their willingness to accept Otto Wangerin, together with his wife Sylvia, for some medical treatment either in the USSR or in Czechoslovakia. This matter regarding the Wangerins was discussed in late October, 1964, with representatives of the International Department, Central Committee, of both the CPSU and the CP of CZ.

In regard to the possibility of Otto Wangerin coming to the USSR for medical treatment, representatives of the International Department, Central Committee, CPSU, stated that their Party was not at this time prepared to accept Wangerin but that they had forwarded the medical report on him to the CP of CZ.

In subsequent discussions with representatives of the International Department, Central Committee, CP of CZ, they denied that they had received the medical report on Otto Wangerin and declined to give any answer on their willingness to accept the Wangerins. This lack of any answer on the part of the CP of CZ concerning the Wangerin matter would indicate a definite unwillingness or, in fact, a refusal of that Party to accept Otto Wangerin for medical treatment. Accordingly, the CP, USA will therefore now proceed on the basis that there is no additional action it can take at this time to get the Wangerins abroad for the desired medical treatment.

INQUIRY BY COMMUNIST PARTY, USA REGARDING
CONFERENCE OF LATIN AMERICAN COMMUNIST
PARTIES SCHEDULED LATE NOVEMBER, 1964,
HAVANA, CUBA

It will be recalled that in mid-October, 1964, Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA (CP, USA), had been rather irritated and upset by the fact that there had been a Conference of Latin American Communist Parties scheduled for late November, 1964, in Havana, Cuba, and that the CP, USA had been the only Party in the Western Hemisphere not invited to this Conference. He instructed that the matter of lack of advice concerning and invitation to this Latin American Conference of Communist Parties be taken up with some responsible representatives of Latin American Communist Parties in Moscow, USSR, as soon as possible.

In late October, 1964, it was learned that Victorio Codovilla, Secretary of the Central Committee, Communist Party of Argentina, and Rodney Darismendi, First Secretary, Communist Party of Uruguay, were then both in Moscow, USSR, and that Luis Corvalan Leppe, General Secretary, Communist Party of Chile, was expected there soon. In view of this, a letter was drawn up by a CP, USA representative who was then in Moscow for the purpose of being delivered to one of the foregoing individuals. This letter requested information as to why the CP, USA had not been invited to the Latin American Conference of Communist Parties. After this letter was prepared, it was turned over to a representative of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union, who, although hesitant about being involved, agreed to transmit it to one of the previously named Party leaders from South America. At this same time, this representative of the North and South American Section, International Department, Central Committee, CP of the Soviet Union, was requested to refrain from informing any representative of the CP of Cuba that such a letter of inquiry had been prepared or was being delivered on the subject matter of the Latin American Conference of Communist Parties.

My memorandum of November 9, 1964, in captioned matter, reported that a representative of the Communist Party of Canada had recently contacted Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, and requested that Hall or some other Party official come to Canada for the purpose of discussing the recent change of regime in the Soviet Union as well as the recent elections in the United States.

The following information, supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past, is being brought to your attention as a matter of possible interest.

Claude Lightfoot and Gilbert Green, members of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, have been designated by Gus Hall to travel to Canada to confer with Party leaders there on matters of mutual interest, particularly those matters relating to the recent leadership changes in the Soviet Union. Although no definite date has been set for the departure of Lightfoot and Green from the United States for travel to Canada, it is not expected that they will be leaving prior to November 22, 1964.

P.S.

Dear Mr. McCone:

Material contained in the enclosed memorandum, supplied by sources which have furnished reliable information in the past, sets forth information pertaining to an alleged 40-page document compiled by the Soviets which reportedly contains a discussion of errors committed by deposed Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Because of the sensitive nature of our sources, this letter and its enclosure are classified "~~Top Secret~~." This information is being furnished to other interested officials of the Government.

Observations and Comments Concerning
Current Situation in Czechoslovakia

It is this reporter's opinion, based on his personal observations and long standing connection with the international communist movement, as well as from an interpretation of material currently appearing in the press, mostly that press of the Western world, that there may be some serious problems in Czechoslovakia today.

For example, at this moment the best evidence perhaps of this is the fact that Antonin Novotny, current First Secretary of the Communist Party of Czechoslovakia (CPCZ) as well as President of the Peoples Republic of Czechoslovakia, was not among those Party dignitaries and leaders who had assembled in Moscow for the November 7th festivities. Instead, appearing in Novotny's place as leading representative of the CPCZ at the Moscow celebration was Jiri Hendrych, a member of the Presidium of the CPCZ and a Secretary of the Central Committee, CPCZ. This absence of Novotny from the Moscow line-up of leading CP personalities would appear to be significant. It could be the forerunner of changes in Czechoslovakia and perhaps an indication of intention to separate the leadership of state and Party there, a move similar to that which has already occurred in the Soviet Union. It could also possibly mean that Novotny has already been relegated to the less important state post of President alone and may have been replaced as the leader of the CPCZ. If this is so, it may be an attempt by the CPCZ, by following the example of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU), to return the leadership of the Party to a collective.

It does not appear to this reporter that the above is impossible since over a long period Novotny, as head of the CPCZ, was Nikita S. Khrushchev's chief man and cooperated down the line fully with him. With the removal of Khrushchev as First Secretary of the CPSU and as Chairman of the Presidium of the Soviet Union, there may perhaps already be a debate in progress in Czechoslovakia to determine whether there had been under Novotny's leadership errors committed which might be the basis for the serious problems existing in Czechoslovakia, many of which are similar, particularly in the field of economics faced by the Soviet Union and which led to Khrushchev's removal.

NY 694-S* will transmit this message to the Soviets through one of several channels available to him.

Subject rented an apartment at 225 East 63rd Street, Apartment 12B, NYC, on 10/26/64, and occupied this apartment on 11/2/64. In pursuit of investigation of subject, a discreet casual interview was conducted on 10/27/64, with [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] Renoir Apartments, 225 East 63rd Street, NYC. [redacted] RNH Management Company, 4125 Kissena Boulevard, Flushing, NY, which is the rental agents for the Renoir Apartments.

It appears that the East 63rd Street apartment referred to in the message is, in fact, the apartment occupied by subject.

During interview with [redacted] and [redacted] no penetrating inquiry was made but interview was confined to obtaining information with respect to the rental of the apartment by subject. They furnished information concerning the apartment number, the date on which the apartment was rented, the date on which it was occupied, the length of the lease and the rental. They also advised that this was a sublease and they furnished the last names of the three former female tenants of this apartment with no background information.

b7C

There was absolutely no discussion of any possible use of sophisticated investigative techniques in connection with instant investigation, nor any questions asked of these two individuals which might be construed by the individuals interviewed as revealing other than a casual interest in subject on the part of the Bureau. These individuals were both acquainted with the Bureau's responsibilities in the internal security field, plus the fact that the Bureau's interest in Soviet nationals did not concern legitimate diplomatic activities.

NY 105-66554

The Bureau's attention is called to the fact that interviews of this type are frequently conducted for the purpose of ascertaining the identity of the individual on the premises in which the Soviets reside, with whom it will be necessary to establish a relationship if maximum results are to be obtained through on-premises investigative efforts. NYO indices are then searched.

NY files reflect a case entitled [redacted] SM - C", Bufile unknown. The wife of the subject of this case is the subject of a case entitled [redacted] SM - C", Bufile unknown. It appears that the [redacted] who was contacted in connection with subject's residence at 225 East 63rd Street, is in fact, identical with the subject of this case. [redacted] case file reflects that he was Treasurer of the American Student Union while attending college in [redacted] and his name was in the possession of JAMES and BETTY GANNETT TORMEY. BETTY TORMEY was Organizational and Educational Secretary of the CP and JACK TORMEY has been identified as a member of the CP.

b7c

The American Student Union was cited as subversive and un-American by a special subcommittee of the US House of Representatives.

[redacted] file also reflects that he had been in difficulties in school for Communist or Communist front activities.

b6
b7c

Similar derogatory information is contained in [redacted] wife file.

It is the opinion of the NYO that this contact with [redacted] in no way jeopardizes the security of our overall investigative activities in the Soviet field, and, in fact, it presents us with an opportunity to channel information to the Soviets through the source at 225 East 63rd Street, who is responsible for reporting our interest in subject to the Soviets. At this time, it appears that [redacted] in fact, this source. However, in order to solidify this identification, the NYO plans to continue contacts with [redacted] at the 225 East 63rd Street address and in the course of these contacts convey a selected innocuous bit of information relating to our interest in subject for the purpose of determining if the information is again passed through NY 694-S* to the Soviets. At no time during contact with these individuals will an exhaustive aggressive inquiry be made which would reveal investigative efforts which might otherwise be pursued in cases where more cooperative, reliable individuals are dealt with in similar circumstances. This, in itself, would serve to mislead the Soviets as to our normal investigative activities, as well as our real interest in subject.

b6

Contacts with these individuals will be less frequent than they might ordinarily be were they found to be reliable.

Our contacts with these individuals will, of course, be coordinated between agents handling the Soviet phase of instant matter and agents handling the SOLO phase of instant matter to insure that at no time does a breach of security occur.

The cases on [redacted] and his wife will be reopened for the purposes of conducting current investigation and evaluating them in terms of the internal security of the US and if warranted, they will be placed upon the Security Index. A separate case will also be opened on [redacted]

b7c

The first move, of course, will be to positively identify the [redacted] at 225 East 63rd Street with the subject of the cases mentioned herein.

The Bureau will be kept advised of developments in this matter and Bureau permission will be requested for any steps taken in accordance with the comments set forth above.

SUBJECT: SOLO
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

"The New York Times" of 10/30/64 contained an article written by its Moscow correspondent, Henry Tanner, which reported that there was circulating in the Soviet Communist Party organization and among many foreign delegations in the Soviet Union, a 40-page "bill of particulars" against deposed Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

On 10/30/64 NY 694-S*, at the instructions of Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), sent a message to the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CCCPSU) expressing grave concern about the above-mentioned article. The CPUSA urged that extreme caution be utilized in the discussion of whatever errors Khrushchev had committed since such weaknesses touch on fundamental questions that vitally affect CPUSA policies. For example, the CPUSA noted that criticism of Khrushchev's Cuban policy absolves "United States imperialism" for the Cuban crisis and could be disastrous to the cause of peace.

On 11/4/64 NY 694-S* received a message from the CCCPSU for transmittal to Gus Hall. In this message the CCCPSU replied that the 10/30/64 article in "The New York Times" was nothing more than the usual fabrication and falsification of the bourgeois press, and that there is no so-called 40-page document or any other such document which contains any discussion of errors committed by Khrushchev.

OBSERVATIONS:

On 10/31/64 Secretary of State Rusk called the Director to express appreciation for the material which was furnished to him concerning Khrushchev's removal. On that occasion, Secretary Rusk advised that he would be very desirous of obtaining a copy of the 40-page Soviet document dealing with Khrushchev's resignation or dismissal.

The information obtained by NY 694-S*, which discloses that officials of the CCCPSU have indicated that there is no such 40-page document or any other such document which contains any discussion of errors committed by Khrushchev, should be of vital interest to Secretary Rusk and other high-level officials.

SAC Johnson, Chicago, called today concerning the travel of Chicago #5824-S* to Moscow for SOLO mission #17. The informant spent a few days late in October in Moscow, but returned to the States in order to brief Gus Hall and also, of course, the Bureau concerning information he had received which related to the removal of Khrushchev from authority in Moscow. He was instructed by the Soviets to return to Moscow the early part of December for conferences there concerning arrangements for funds for the Communist Party, USA, for 1965, and to attend a meeting of the Editorial Commission in Moscow 12/15/64 to deal with Sino-Soviet relations.

The informant was instructed last week by Gus Hall to plan to be in New York to attend the National Board meeting scheduled for 11/18 and 11/19/64, and thereafter to proceed to Moscow to complete his Party business there.

Johnson advised this morning that the informant was preparing to proceed on this travel and would leave Chicago at noon, 11/17/64. He stated that it would be necessary to advance the informant $1,825 to cover round-trip airfare from Chicago to New York and thence to Moscow and return, and that included in this amount are expenses for hotels, meals, excess baggage, and other costs. He will make a detailed accounting on his return, and return funds not expended. Johnson also requested authority to pay the informant prior to his departure from Chicago his December payment as an informant since he will not be returning to the States under present plans until at least the last part of December and possibly not until January.

ACTION:

I authorized Chicago to advance $1,825 to the informant for the purposes indicated and also to advance him his December informant payment.

The NYO has regularly been forwarding under instant caption a summary of results of efforts to trace ultimate use of Solo funds by the CPUSA and its allied organizations.

In this connection it has been reported for a period of years that invariably any deposit made to the account of the Committee For A Free Press (bank account of "The Worker") in an amount exceeding $1,000 in cash, consists or substantially consists of Solo funds. In this connection, it is noted that when said Solo money is made available to the Party, it is earmarked for "The Worker" and so reported to the NYO.

Inasmuch as "The Worker" is largely supported by Solo funds, which fact has been definitely established through the tracing operation and NY 694-S*, deposits consisting of from $1,000 to $9,000 are regularly made to the account in $20.00 bills on the average of once each week.

Following the recording of the serial and series numbers of said bills, it is necessary for clerical personnel to search each bill through the card index file maintained by the NYO. This procedure is far more involved than, for instance, checking through alphabetical index cards and requires extreme concentration. It is estimated that it requires one clerk a minimum of two to two and one half days to check a sum of $9,000.00.

In view of the fact that the Solo pattern has now been definitely established in regards "The Worker" and that the channelization of such funds to the paper is regularly reported, it is recommended that, in the interests of economy, through the saving in clerical labor, that the tracing operation be suspended as regards deposits made to the account of the Committee For a Free Press.

It is contemplated that the NYO will continue to record the serial and series numbers of the deposits on an FD-302. In the event it should become necessary or desirable to trace these numbers through the Solo index, such could be accomplished at any time.

It is further pointed out that a stop maintained at the bank utilized by Afton Tours makes it necessary for a Special Agent to go to the bank sometimes twice each week to record the serial and series numbers of these deposits.

Of late, the check through the Solo file index has been negative concerning these deposits.

UACB, the NYO will discontinue monitoring Afton Tour deposits on a regular basis. Liaison will be maintained at the bank in the event it should become necessary or desirable to monitor the deposits during a specific period.

The Bureau's comments are solicited relative to the above recommendations pertaining to "The Worker" account.

New York airtel 11/6/64 sets out that NY 694-S* received the following message from Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, United States of America, on 11/3/64, for relay to Moscow.

"MICROPHONES HAVE BEEN PLANTED IN AN EAST 63RD STREET APARTMENT SEVERAL DAYS BEFORE YOUR BEST PEOPLE MOVED IN. BE MOST CAREFUL, ALSO DO NOT REVEAL SOURCE."

This information is definitely incorrect, as far as the FBI is concerned, for we have no microphones in this building. In analyzing this garbled information, New York advises that the message probably relates to an inquiry concerning the subject on 10/27/64. Subject is the Head of the Political Branch of the Soviet Committee of State Security (KGB) in New York and acts as the Head of the KGB in New York in the absence of Boris S. Janson. We obtained State Department clearance for active investigation of subject 5/6/64.

In connection with our investigation of subject, New York contacted the RMI Management Company, rental agents for the apartment building. It is reported during the course of their inquiries they talked with [redacted] (mail Apartments, 225 East 63rd Street, Upper West Side Apartment 12B at this address on 11/26/64 and occupied same 11/2/64. [redacted] as discussed concerning investigative techniques was had with [redacted]. After determining the names of [redacted] as being [redacted] rental agent, the New York office checked their records and determined that [redacted] and his wife are the subjects of Security Matter - C investigations, and New York says it is quite likely that [redacted] is responsible for furnishing this information to Gus Hall. New York is also of the opinion that contact with [redacted] does not jeopardize security of our investigation of Soviets, and New York plans to continue limited contact with [redacted] and [redacted] in effort to determine if information available to them is again furnished to the Soviets through NY 694-S*. New York is considering the possibility of furnishing desired deceptive information to the Soviets through [redacted] and contact with these people will also serve as protection to the information received through NY 694-S*. No action in this regard will be taken without Bureau authority and this will be closely coordinated between personnel handling the Sale (NY 694-S*) operation and investigation of subject.

SUBJECT: SOLO
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

My memorandum to you of 10/1/64 pointed out that the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), had requested the sum of $100,000 from the Communist Party of the Soviet Union (CPSU) to finance the CPUSA's election program.

This is to advise of the receipt of $100,000 by the CPUSA on 11/18/64 from the CPSU.

On 11/18/64 Vladimir A. Chuchukin, an official of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations, delivered to NY 694-S* a package containing the sum of $100,000, of which $60,000 was in $100 bills, $24,000 was in $20 bills and $16,000 was in $10 bills.

The grand total of all funds received by the CPUSA from the Soviets since 1958 is now $2,379,991, of which amount $730,330 was delivered by the Soviets to the CPUSA in 1964.

ACTION:

For information. The clandestine receipt of funds from the Soviets is not disseminated in view of the fact that it would jeopardize NY 694-S* and our entire Solo operation.

Pursuant to arrangements previously made with the Soviets, NY 694-S*, at 2:40 PM on 11/18/64, met his Soviet contact VLADIMIR A. CHUCHUKIN on the 7th floor of the office building located at 120 Wall Street, New York City. At this meeting, CHUCHUKIN handed NY 694-S* a package which contained one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) in ten, twenty and one hundred dollar bills. The package contained $16,000.00 in ten dollar bills, $24,000.00 in twenty dollar bills, and $60,000.00 in one hundred dollar bills. The serial numbers of the aforementioned bills will be checked against the lists of money issued to Soviet establishments in Washington, D. C., and in New York City, and in the event any of these bills are identical, the Bureau will be advised. CHUCHUKIN did not converse with NY 694-S*, but handed him a small piece of paper which bore the notation "GR 3-9746, 7:05 PM Today." NY 694-S* was to call this number that evening, letting it ring three times (unanswered) to indicate all was well with the safe reception of the money. The Bureau will be advised of the location of the aforementioned phone number.

Before departing with the money, NY 694-S* handed CHUCHUKIN a small packet containing microfilm on which were three partially-coded messages, the plain texts of which are as follows:

- 1 - Chicago (134-46-Sub B)(AM RM)

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union recently furnished the following information to the Communist Party, USA.

The date of the meeting of the Editorial Commission scheduled to be held in Moscow, Russia, on December 15, 1964, has been postponed until March 1, 1965. The opinion of Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, was solicited as to the advisability of making a public announcement concerning the postponement.

The meeting of the Editorial Commission has been postponed in view of the fact that Sino-Soviet representatives during their recent meeting in Moscow failed to reach any satisfactory agreement. The Chinese indicated that they would not attend or participate in any manner in the meeting of the Editorial Commission.

During the recent meeting between Sino-Soviet representatives, the Soviets proposed that open polemics be immediately ceased. The Chinese refused to agree to this, and insisted that the Soviets stop catering to the United States. The Chinese demanded that the Soviet Union remove from its policy the question of peaceful coexistence with all countries, particularly with the United States.

NOTE: Classified "~~Top Secret~~" because unauthorized disclosure of this information could reveal the identity of the source (NY 694-S*) who is of continuing value, and such revelation could result in exceptionally grave damage to the Nation. See memorandum Baumgardner to Sullivan 11/30/64, WGS:pah, and NYairtel 11/25/64 all captioned "Solo, Internal Security - Communist."

ASAC Welte of Chicago called yesterday concerning the captioned case advising that the Chicago Solo informant, CG 5824-S*, was scheduled to return to Chicago shortly from New York and was scheduled to leave for Europe via Boston, leaving Boston on 11-29-64.

Because of the activity in this case and the many problems surrounding this informant's travel to Europe, Chicago urged that SA Hanson who handles the informant in Chicago go to Boston on 11-28-64 to see the informant off and handle any last minute Bureau business with the informant. Chicago strongly urged that this be done in the over-all interest of the Bureau's relationship with this informant.

ACTION:

In view of the strong recommendation for Chicago, I told Welte if he received no contrary instructions from the Bureau Hanson could go to Boston to assist the informant in his departure for Europe on the current Solo Mission.

Reurlet 11/20/64 setting forth an accounting of the expenses incurred by CG 5824-S* and his wife from 10/19-29/64 while on Solo Mission 16.

Relet points out that CG 5824-S* incurred a deficit during the course of Solo Mission 16 which amounts to $39.04. Your office has requested authority to reimburse CG 5824-S* the sum of $39.04 to cover this deficit.

Authority is granted to reimburse CG 5824-S* the sum of $39.04 in accordance with the request set forth in relet.

NOTE:

Prior to departing on Solo Mission 16, Chicago was authorized to advance $3,375 to informant to cover expenses incurred in connection with the travel of informant and wife on Solo Mission 16. Informant also obtained $500 from the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), making a grand total of $3,875 available. Informant has submitted an itemized accounting of the total expenses incurred during his mission which amounts to $3,914.04 and leaves a balance of $39.04 to be paid to informant. The question of why CG 5824-S* could not claim more funds from the CPUSA was taken up with informant. CG 5824-S* stated that the $500 received from the CPUSA was claimed for his wife; that his not claiming funds from the CPUSA is an integral part of his strategy in maintaining his position as the official CPUSA emissary, and that it is only by portraying the image of a successful businessman of some means who is willing to donate his time and money to the CPUSA that informant is able to deter Hall from giving consideration to using someone else on these Solo missions.

GUINEA

Trade Unions and New Africa

Trade union unity, an indispensable element in the upsurge of the African revolutionary movement, forms the subject of a commentary in the Guinean paper Horoya of August 15, 1964.

DIVIDING African movements of every kind, and the trade union movement in particular, remains the objective of the imperialists. This is no accident, considering that trade

ARGENTINE

Trade union leaders arrested

EN September 28, 1964, the World Federation of Trade Unions addressed a strong protest to Dr. Arturo U. Illia, the President of the Republic of Argentina, on the arrest of 119 trade union leaders who were taken in custody solely because they led the Argentine workers in their actions for trade union and social demands.

These arbitrary arrests are a serious attack on the trade union movement of the Argentine and a flagrant violation of trade union freedoms, an integral part of the democratic rights which the Government of Dr. Illia had promised to respect. They are also a violation of the International Convention on trade union freedoms and the WFTU will condemn it as such at the ILO if these actions are not immediately stopped.

conditions and accentuated the crisis in some areas.

The series of statewide strikes have made it clear that if various central TU organisations can give a united call, the working class and other toiling sections of the people can make a country-wide strike a possibility capable of being successfully realised.

Hence, the National Campaign Committee appeals to all central TU organisations and to all industrial federations to consult together with each other with a view to making general strike, a slogan capable of early implementation.

union unity is indispensable in the struggle waged by the revolutionary movements for the economic development of our countries. We are not stressing here the decisive role of the national trade union organisations in the genuinely sovereign countries. Let us just mention the success of the trade union meetings of Dakar, Cotonou, Conakry, as well as Casablanca, Rabat, Accra and finally, the recent great victory achieved at the 2nd Congress of the AATUF at Bamako. To bring about this 2nd Congress we had to pass through many stages and overcome many obstacles. The First Congress of the AATUF, held in May 1961 at Rabat, brought together practically all the African trade unions. There, too, imperialism

VIETNAM

WFTU Statement on Vietnam

IN a statement on the current events in Vietnam, issued on September 23, 1964, the World Federation of Trade Unions expresses its close support and fraternal solidarity with the workers and trade unions in Saigon who have gone on strike against the arbitrary dismissal of trade unionists from Saigon textile factories, for democratic freedom and trade union rights particularly the right to strike.

With the declaration of a State of Emergency, these rights have been brutally violated and strikes made illegal. Thus the workers would be deprived of the most effective means of defending their interests and their economic and social claims.

The valiant struggle of the Saigon workers is an eloquent expression of the growing resistance of the broad masses of South Vietnamese workers was not idle. And it acted in such a way that the organisation that had been set up encountered numerous difficulties. Thus the ATUC was set up. After many delays, the AATUF, true to its mission, multiplied its efforts for unity. In vain. After many difficulties, at the meeting of its Secretariat at Accra, in February 1964, it decided to convene its second congress and issued a call to the workers to unite. This time the representatives of those who oppose unity, confronted with the resolute determination of the participating organisations to achieve real African trade union unity, could not stop the forward march of our peoples.

Cairo, then, confirmed clearly the results of this session. In fact, the Conference of Heads of States took the decisions that are known, incorporating all Pan-African movements into the OAU as specialised departments.

against the policy of the General Khanh clique, which is no more than a puppet in the hands of the North American aggressors.

Concerning the last incidents in the Tonkin Gulf, where U.S. destroyers opened fire against unidentified ships suspected of having hostile intentions, the WFTU once more strongly denounces these provocative acts against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam. It repeats its urgent demand that the aggressive and provocative acts of the United States, which cause anxiety to the workers and peace-loving peoples throughout the world, should immediately be ended, in the spirit of the 1954 Geneva Agreements.

The WFTU again calls on the workers and trade unions throughout the world to take effective measures to prevent the American imperialists from continuing their actions and provocations which seriously threaten peace in South-East Asia and the world.

GREAT BRITAIN

96th Trades Union Congress

Movement goes forward

In the British Trade Union Movement the most important annual event is the Trades Union Congress which met in Blackpool from September 7 to 15. This year the resolution adopted on exchange visits stressed that these could be a useful step towards re-establishing international trade union unity. We reprint here extracts from an evaluation by Jim Mortimer, of the Draughtsmen and Allied Technicians' Association, writing in the London TRIBUNE of September 18.

ACCORDING to most of the British press the Trades Union Congress need not have been held this year for all the good it did. The criticisms range far and wide. It registered little progress, it is said, on the reform of trade union structure and it evaded the real problems of an incomes policy.

Well, I for one disagree with this assessment of the 1964 Congress. In my view it was a good Congress and in a number of respects marked a step forward for the movement.

Take, first of all, the main decisions. Here, for the record, is a brief summary of just a few of the successful resolutions:

- The General Council was asked to give assistance to the efforts of affiliated unions to secure a 35-hour working week and a minimum three weeks' annual holiday.

- Congress called for the development of industrial training schemes through a strengthened central training authority with adequate funds raised from industrial levies and Government grants. Congress also called for day release for all young people in industry.

- Congress welcomed the Labour Party's proposals for a comprehensive scheme of wage-related national insurance benefits and contributions and urged that existing national insurance benefits should be substantially increased.

- Congress urged that the Factories Act should be extended to provide for the election of workers' safety delegates and the setting up of safety committees in factories.

- Congress called for effective economic planning, including an extension of public ownership, and expressed opposition to any attempt to impose an incomes policy which aimed to restrain wage and salary increases. It said that an acceptable incomes policy must be based on social justice and should take account of all forms of incomes including rent, interest and profit.

- Support was expressed for the development of world trade, including East-West trade, and for assistance to underdeveloped countries.

- The policy of apartheid of the South African Government was condemned and the general council was requested to use their influence to secure an international boycott of

by

JIM MORTIMER

Editor of "The Draughtsman"

South African goods by organised workers (i.e. not only by consumers).

- Congress called for an integrated transport system, including the rationalisation of road haulage.

- Concern was expressed at the judgment of the House of Lords in the Rookes versus Barnard case and support was given to the general council's efforts to obtain new legislation to restore the protection intended by the 1906 Trade Disputes Act.

- Opposition was expressed to the supply of arms to fascist Spain and to the arming of West Germany with nuclear weapons, whether through

INDIA

To stop rising prices

The broad action on rising prices and the mass arrests that followed have attracted wide attention. The Indian National Campaign Committee which organises this nation-wide drive has issued a new appeal published in TRADE UNION RECORD, the publication of the AITUC (WFTU) of September 5, 1964. Here are some extracts:

From

TRADE UNION RECORD

(FOURTHLY)

THE National Campaign Committee of the Tollers of India congratulates the thousands of men and women who responded magnificently to the call for statewide strikes in Kerala, Gujarat, Maharashtra, Uttar Pradesh and Goa.

The workers in many parts of India have gone on united local actions as in Coimbatore and West Bengal, Delhi and other places, adopting various forms of struggle.

The Government has been forced to announce that state trading in food-grains will be introduced but their scheme of a Trading Corporation is partial and defective as it does not envisage monopoly purchase of food-grains by the State, thus leaving open private trade and speculators to operate.

The steep and continuous rise in prices is not due to any natural causes but is the result of the growth of monopoly concentration of wealth the NATO multi-national nuclear force or by some other method.

- Congress welcomed exchange visits between British trade unions and unions in other countries.

A number of these decisions represent an advance on the previous declarations of the trade union movement. The plain fact is that many of the commentators who have criticised the 1964 Congress would have preferred to report on divisions within the movement. They were disappointed that the delegates at the Congress stressed instead their common purpose on a wider number of issues and gave support to progressive motions.

In the discussion on economic planning and incomes policy there were certainly differences of emphasis between one union and another, but there was also sufficient agreement to point the direction of trade union policy. The unions want economic planning and they want more public ownership to provide the means for effective planning.

The unions will measure the effectiveness of plans for economic development by the extent to which they remove the threat of unemployment, raise living standards and bring about a more equitable distribution of national wealth. This is the key to the attitude of the unions towards an incomes policy. It must not be an euphemism for wage restraint. Its purpose should be to bring about an increase in real wages and salaries.

I returned from Blackpool feeling that our movement had gone forward. It is now the task of trade unionists to ensure that the decisions of the Congress are translated into action.

and money and the speculation and hoarding which are facilitated and abetted by the policies of the Government.

These policies still continue. Prices continue to rise; speculators and hoarders continue to mint money out of the people's food, creating an artificial scarcity and the Government refuses to take any effective action. Such half-hearted action as the Government has been forced to take has not resulted in improving the situation as a whole but has worsened

ITALY

TIME FOR ACTION

On May 29 a National Assembly of workers on the land, peasants and representatives of agricultural co-operatives met in Rome. It exposed the failure of capitalist methods of farming with subsidies amounting to thousands of millions of lire to improve agricultural and livestock production under the "Green Plan" of the Common Market disappearing into the pockets of the big landowners. Here are extracts from an account of the assembly taken from the journal of the CGIL of May 30, 1964.

THE deficit in the foreign trade balance for agricultural and food products rose from 300 thousand million lire in 1962 to 500 thousand million lire in 1963. This year's harvest might give us a surplus of 5 to 10 million quintals of cereals for which there are no buyers and which in the end will be used either as fodder or sold abroad for 2,500 to 3,000 lire the quintal¹. . . . In 1960 we were told that this was necessary to adapt our agriculture to the requirements of bigger home consumption and to competition within the Common Market . . .

"This deficit will be met", declared Vittorio Foa, Secretary of the CGIL, "out of the workers' contributions paid into the family and pensions fund. They are being deprived of what is due to them in the fear that large families, old and disabled persons might be consuming too much meat, butter and sugar." (The production of these primary essentials is showing a loss in Italy at the moment).

The failure of the agrarian and economic policy of the ruling class, which gave the development of agriculture a capitalist orientation, further shows itself in the stagnation in the south of Italy, particularly among the tenant farmers and the small farmers who find it extremely hard to make a living. The historical discrepancy between industry and agriculture became even more acute and brought about a complete subordination of the most powerful wholesale trade groups and the Federconsorzi (the employers' organisation).

Italian landworkers

The land reform, which was to modify the foundations of landed property and agrarian structures and direct investments towards new forms of agricultural co-operation, is therefore an objective not only of millions of peasants, small farmers, tenant farmers and agricultural workers as well as agricultural specialists, but also of the urban workers . . .

The CGIL therefore declares (and a Bill to this effect has been submitted to Parliament) that if agriculture is to be re-organised on a democratic basis, regional institutions must be formed to encourage the development of agriculture. These institutions must have sufficient authority to plan agricultural production, readjust the property system, to organise the markets and the distribution of credits.

The results obtained as far as farming contracts are concerned were the outcome of a long and difficult economic battle, a united struggle waged by the peasants' trade union movement. Partial as they may be, these results are positive. Land reform and democratic planning of the development of agriculture are always the fundamental objectives of united mass campaigns organised by all the workers grouped in the CGIL, in the National Peasants' Alliance, in the National League of Co-operatives, in the Agricultural Workers' Union, in the Tenant Farmers' Union and in the Association of Agricultural Co-operatives . . .

¹ This represents only 15 per cent of the 1963 deficit to be met if we consider the highest figures of surpluses and sales prices.

MOROCCO

COLONISATION MOROCCAN VERSION

The Moroccan Government makes much of its "land reform". Avant Garde, the organ of the Moroccan Labour Union (UMT — independent) of August 22, 1964, comments on this problem:

L'Avant-garde

AT least 3 million hectares (1 hectares — 2½ acres) are indifferently farmed by the feudalists and the 'colons' (mainly French settlers). Of this total, only the land belonging officially to the settlers, i. e. about 230,000 hectares roughly, are included in the land reform which is less than a quarter of the total belonging to the big landowners. Even this is being done by bits and pieces, and what is worse, this part of the national wealth is being bought back at high prices from those who had received it for less than nothing and enriched themselves from it for 65 years . . .

Heirs to colonialism

Let us look at the land belonging to the colonialists. Ever since 1956 we are demanding its restitution. Since then, the owners have continued to exploit it, without, however, developing it. As fertilisers have been used only sparingly, the land is exhausted; farming equipment has not been renewed. And these depreciations the State is going to reward with generous compensation. Thus, the reclaiming of such a small part of the national wealth results in the impoverishment of the country. Let us add to this that numerous farms have been sold by the colonialist owners to big Moroccan landowners. In 1959 the Government of Abdallah Ibrahim forbade such sales. But since then open disregard of this ban has resulted in the pillage of the nation's wealth to the advantage of a few privileged persons linked with Government circles . . .

This continues in another form. The Government has appointed twenty administrators as overseers of 8,000 ha. The Government is buying back at the expense of the nation property that will allow privileged sectors to get rich. And this is called land reform, while at best it is a Moroccan variety of colonisation.

UNITED STATES

The peons of California

Extracts from a report by J. R. Robertson, Vice-President of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen' Union (Independent) which appeared in the Dispatcher of May 15, 1964, official publication of this union.

LAST week I spent several days in a wonderland of productive wealth — where enough food is harvested to feed a large part of America, and even parts of the world. I travelled that great horn of plenty which Californians call "the Valley" and which produces more than 40 per cent of vegetables eaten in this country. From Porterville in the south to Chico in the north it is, acre for acre, the richest agricultural producer in the world.

Yet, by moving a few yards off the highway and the main street I saw appalling living conditions in the midst of plenty. I had no idea that there could be so much poverty in the vast valley that I had travelled so often — so much invisible poverty, just around the corner, yet just out of sight in hundreds of towns.

There are hundreds like this one — in this richest of states, in the richest country in the world.

A 12 to 15 foot boxlike room made of weather-beaten boards, and covered by stinking tarpaper — that's "home". No running water or toilet in the house. At times there is an outside tap. As often, there's just a barrel or drum of water outside the shacks. In some places there's a community bathroom and a public toilet in the centre of shantytown.

Most families have cars, some have trailers. They must have wheels of some kind to follow the crops to earn a few bucks.

A sixty-year old farm worker described to me the kinds of people who work; these are his words: "There are the Anglos, the Mexicans, the Negroes and the Filipinos."

It became pretty clear to me that these four major groupings stay pretty far apart — or are kept that way. In any case, I saw no signs anywhere that any of these groups had any realisation that they would have to work together and pool their strength if they ever expect to get anywhere. If the trade unions ever hope to help the agricultural worker lift himself, we'll have to work like hell to break down these national and racial barriers. It won't be easy — especially when there's such rough competition for a day's work.

So the first lesson is to learn not only to live together but to join forces and use their collective political and economic strength to pull them-

GREAT BRITAIN

One answer only

Under the above headline, the LAND WORKER of August 1964, journal of the National Union of Agricultural Workers, comments editorially on conditions in British agriculture.

BETWEEN 1950 and 1963 the number of male farm workers in Great Britain fell by 220,000. This represents nearly 34 per cent of the 1950 total. That loss . . . has not been evenly distributed throughout the age groups.

Over a half of the net loss is of those between the ages of 25 and 44 years. The total fall in this group is over 115,000.

These figures, culled from a table produced by the Minister of Labour in answer to a question from our Vice-President, effectively show why we are right to be concerned about the drift from the land. It is not just that the labour force is shrinking . . . it is that the industry is losing fastest the very men who should be the backbone of the agricultural labour force.

There is no difficulty about getting young people to enter agriculture. Indeed, 16 per cent of our workers are under 19 years old compared with only 10 per cent for the total work force of the country. But by the time they reach their early twenties they leave in their thousands. Just at the time when they should be at their most effective to the industry.

selves out of this modern-day peonage. What can the labour movement do? For the 30 years I've been in the labour movement I've seen one attempt after the other to organise agriculture fail. When it does succeed, on occasion, it's because the people organised are really industrial workers, staying in one place, pretty much mechanised, and usually handling only one basic crop.

Despite all efforts mainland agricultural workers remain unorganised, hideously exploited, often undernourished, virtually unprotected, semi-literate, and almost outside the normal American scene.

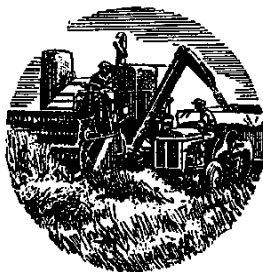

The children of these farm workers need an education, and have an equal right to learning. We owe it to these kids — and must demand that they get it, even if it means large appropriations for first-class mobile schools that will follow the children around.

We need the farm worker to produce the food we need in order to live. He needs the unions to give him a hand — to fight for him, to speak for him in legislatures, and congress, to bring his case to the public — and then to help him learn the ultimate lesson we too had to learn the hard way — to learn how to work together.

COLOMBIA

Operation Marquetalia

To deprive them of their land, on July 14 the Colombian Government launched a large-scale military operation against small farmers in the Marquetalia region, throwing in almost 20,000 troops accompanied by U. S. advisers. BOLETIN, the organ of Trade Union Unity of the workers of Latin America, carries a report on this offensive in its August issue, from which we reprint some excerpts.

IN the darkest period of terror and dictatorship that the people of Colombia had to endure, some guerilla units started to clear the virgin forest in the Marquetalia region.¹ After the overthrow of the military dictatorship in 1957, the new Government offered peace, and the guerilla fighters became farmers. They declared, however: "We took up arms to defend human rights against violence. If the offers of peace made to us are sincere, we shall remain peaceful workers. But as the experience of the last years has taught us that our only guarantee of safety against the enemy is our ability to defend ourselves, we will not lay down our arms. We will till the land in peace, without, however, giving up our self-defence organisation."

The Government willy-nilly had to accept. During a longish period it encountered no difficulty in the region.

Self-defence

Marquetalia is no exception in Colombia. There are also peasant self-defence organisations in the regions of Pato, Guayabero, Riochiquito, Sumapaz, Tequendama, and elsewhere.

In all these regions the civilian authorities and the Government representatives could always establish themselves when they came with peaceful intentions. The representatives of the authorities were often received in a spirit of co-operation. But the peasants have always resisted all and any form of military occupation, having had some bitter experience.

An American military spokesman admitted: "The U.S. army has trained Colombian officers in anti-guerilla warfare. We offered the Colombian army experts and helicopters for special operations; in any case, the USA is going to maintain a special unit of troops in Colombia till July."

After the Government had publicly announced the operation in the hope of preparing public opinion, a wave of protest swept the country and the project had to be postponed. But following talks concluded in Washington, Colonel Fajardo Pinzon, from the Colombian Army Headquarters, declared that the operation was "inevitable, since it was no longer possible to resist the pressure of the U.S. army agents."

The civilian population was mercilessly bombed, but such army spokesmen had to admit that the expected results had failed to materialise.

Antonio Marin, peasant leader from Marquetalia, in a letter to the UNO condemned the crime of this warfare and the spraying of the crops with poisons in order to make the peasants surrender through hunger. The State Department denied this, as it had denied similar actions in Korea, Vietnam and Laos.

The Colombian Trade Union Confederation has started a campaign in defence of the Marquetalia peasants. It calls on all workers and people in Colombia to organise solidarity actions together with the campaign for demands, disappear. The next war will be won by no general, by no statesman, by no nation and by no ideology. Next time there will be only one winner — death.

The DGB therefore demands that all atomic, bacteriological and toxic weapons should be banned by international agreement, that all nuclear tests should stop and that all stockpiles of nuclear, bacteriological and toxic weapons in the world be destroyed and their manufacture forbidden. It demands a security guarantee within the United Nations. Relations between states should be finally and exclusively founded on a legal basis. Force as a political weapon has no place in the world of today.

The West German trade unions feel that world peace cannot be saved by an increase in arms, but only by unhindered social progress and the steady improvement of the living conditions of all workers in all countries. They vigorously oppose that arms expenditure should compel the state to neglect its social commitments.

The following comment on events in Vietnam appeared in DRUCK UND PAPIR, Journal of Printing and Paper Workers' Union of Federal Germany:

druck und papier

We ought to be honest. We should examine as critically what our friends say as what we hear from our opponents. Even if it is not opportune. Even if it could give rise to personal disadvantages.

What does it mean to be "honest"? It means to describe the American bombing raids on North Vietnam not as "retaliation", but to say what they really are: an extremely dangerous, belligerent demonstration of a world power. Unless you are of the opinion that a slap in the face is best answered by shooting your assailant in the leg.

To be honest means to destroy the legend about the defence of freedom and justice in South Vietnam. The issue there is not the defence of western values but is the propping up of a clique whose downfall is long overdue. Not the defence of a peoples' right to self-determination, but to maintain the position of the United States in South East Asia.

To be honest is to describe a military "adviser" no longer as adviser as soon as he actively intervenes — be it only as pilot of a troop transporter — in military operations. A country which supplies only bombers and material apart from advisers is also waging war. That country is as guilty for the loss of human lives as the soldiers who themselves do the killing.

To be honest means to call a dictatorship a dictatorship even when it is a friendly nation. To call an atrocity an atrocity even when it is committed by an ally. An injustice is an injustice also if it occurs in the western hemisphere.

To be honest means, all in all, to tear down the camouflage of propaganda, to unmask legends and illusions.

Redundancy in the textile industry

Cushioning the impact

The Textile and Clothing Workers' Union has sent a press release to all public authorities in the German Federal Republic, parts of which are reprinted below from the weekly of the DGB.

DURING the past six years 89,000 textile workers, both men and women lost their jobs in the Federal Republic. Despite these dismissals and a reduction in hours of work by six hours a week, production in the textile industry has gone up. The rate of increase in production in the West German textile industry amounts to 5% per annum. Production per man hour has more than doubled.

This is in the first place the result of the vast rationalisation measures . . . In the cotton industry a weaver who used to operate 20 looms, today has to operate 55 automatic ones on an average.

While affirming the need for technological advance, the social consequences arising from it, particularly for the older wage earners must from the outset be taken into account. It appears from trade union documentation that textile workers had to accept a loss of pay amounting to as much as 0.80 marks an hour and consequently lower old age pensions. Since 1981 the Textile Clothing Workers' Union has done everything possible to introduce a clause in the collective agreements which would provide for the protection of the wage-earners in the event of rationalisation.

For the first time, in the spring of 1984, such an agreement on rationalisation was signed in Westphalia. The contracting parties undertook to set up a fund for the payment of additional insurance benefits in case of dismissal and a reduction in wages caused by rationalisation and to mitigate the adverse effects this might have for old age pensions.

The following points will now have to be negotiated throughout the textile industry:

1 In the event of the closing of a factory, payment of a carry-over allowance to the redundant, ranging from three to twelve monthly salaries, depending on age. Together with this the introduction of retraining schemes to ensure a smooth adaptation of the workers to the new working conditions.

2 In the event of rationalisation, every effort must be made to offer the redundant workers vacancies in other departments of the same factory. Continued payment of the average wage for a minimum of six months. Should afterwards the income be lower additional contributions will be paid into the old age pensions fund for employees over the age of 45, which will guarantee them a pension based on their previous higher earnings.

In the event of inevitable redundancy as a result of rationalisation, a carry-over allowance of three to twelve monthly wages must also be paid.

3 If structural changes take place in a plant which leads to its closing down, transfer or change-over of production, the provisions demanded in point 1 and 2 are to be applied.

4 To meet these commitments, the plants shall pay 0.5 per cent of annual wages and salaries bill into a public utility association founded for this purpose.

World's farm workers Square Deal

Whatever the specific nature of the agricultural problems in the different parts of the world, there is one feature common to all of them: monopoly control of the market. Low wages, in some countries grinding poverty, the flight from the land, alongside unchecked profits of Big Business, concentration of the land in fewer hands, and often a frantic clinging to colonial and feudal methods of exploitation; these are some of the aspects of agriculture as shown by our following articles.

SPAIN

Poverty drives them out

Extracts from a comment published in the Spanish agricultural workers' monthly, May 1964 issue.

IN 1963 and at the beginning of 1964, the rate of emigration of Spanish workers to other countries increased considerably. More than a million are living permanently in the West European countries, not to mention the periodically recurring waves of seasonal workers.

At a recent meeting, the President of a "Hermandad" (Peasant Association under Government control) spoke of a "progressive acceleration of mass emigration of the peasantry, affecting not only agricultural workers, but also small and medium farmers. The figures we receive periodically are growing really alarming and we are afraid that some day we shall find only children and old people in the villages, all able-bodied men having left for brighter horizons giving them more scope for their activity."

What bothers and frightens these gentlemen is certainly not the suffering and hardship endured by the agricultural workers and peasants whom poverty obliges to leave their homeland in search of bread. What worries them is the scarcity of labour at certain times and the fact that the emigrants on their return are ready to struggle for what can be called European wages.

Real solution

Their real aim is to continue to ruin the peasants, to kill two birds with one stone: on the one hand,

Turning the soil

to take over what little of the land they still possess, thereby furthering the already scandalous concentration of land ownership,¹ and on the other hand, to create a new proletariat to replace those who have left.

This tends to become a double-edged weapon if the peasants struggle resolutely for a democratic regime that would be willing to take the measures that would put an end to this type of emigration. The first of these should be real land reform giving back the land to those who till it. It is generally known that in Spain there are great plots of waste land or land insufficiently cultivated belonging to a minority of large landowners who have given sufficient proof of their bad husbandry. It would be enough to give this land to the agricultural workers and the peasants to bring about a considerable decrease in emigration, if not stop it altogether.

¹ 51,283 landowners, i. e. 0.85 per cent of the total landowners possess 53.51 per cent of the land, i. e. 22,862,100 hectares (one hectare = approx. 2½ acres); 2.59 per cent, i. e. 5,486,820 peasants possess 18.9 per cent of the land and 3,126,000 others have only lots smaller than one hectare. The number of seasonal agricultural workers is 1,300,000, out of which 700,000 are in the southern regions.

Small farmers ready to fight

THE French National Farmers' Union has published a leaflet stating: "French Farmers don't want to be the lowest category in France, the lowest in Europe..."

From

Weekly of the CGT
September 9, 1964

The small and medium farmers have reasons enough for their discontent. The main one is that they have to sell their agricultural produce to the distributors at a price dictated by the Government. Thus the prices of certain products, such as grain and meat, have not changed in years, while the peasants have to pay higher prices for industrial goods.

For beef, the price paid to the producer, called price of orientation, is so low, that little by little, the peasants have been deterred from raising beef; France has to import beef, while in 1950 the problem was the reverse; it had to find markets.

That is the result of an obstinate policy, allowing only the margins of the big distributors to increase and weighing heavily on the earnings of the producers. Here we are meeting the other aspect of the so-called policy of stabilisation, meaning wage freeze...

It is known that the Government has officially set itself the objective of closing down in a few years hundreds of thousands of small "nonpaying" farms. This is yet another means it wants to use to fight the "shortage" on the labour market and to set up its reserve army, swelled by thousands of hands driven from the land.

But the peasants are becoming conscious of the dangers confronting them. On August 30, an important meeting of the National Farmers' Union of the Centre region (Gueret Committee) and the South-East region was held in Périgueux.

Some of the actions proposed at Périgueux include regional demonstrations, the blocking of roads around October 15, a march on Paris on the day a motion of censure on agricultural policy will be put to the vote in the Assembly, convening of general councils to oblige them to take a stand on agricultural problems and to become the spokesmen of the peasants to the prefects. On the day of the Périgueux meeting the peasants in Cambrai demonstrated, shouting "No to stabilisation on the back of the peasants and wage-earners", posters were carried through the streets of Lyon by peasants from the Rhône region, to demonstrate that the Government will have to deal with the working peasantry of our country as a whole.

SCANDINAVIAN COUNTRIES

Unions oppose arms drive

This summer several trade union conferences in the Scandinavian countries adopted resolutions which stressed the need to safeguard peace. Here are some items from the workers' press in these countries which show that the vast international discussion on problems of peace proposed at the 7th Baltic Workers' Conference (Rostock-GDB, in July) has been taken up in the Scandinavian trade union movement.

The Swedish Seamen's Union at its Congress in August welcomed the increasing opposition against nuclear weapons. Following the resolution adopted by the Congress in 1959, which declared that "each country that gets nuclear weapons shares the responsibility for a possible catastrophe that might effect the entire human race", other federations and the Scandinavian Transport Workers' Union unanimously supported this position.

The discussion on the question of peace and an end to the arms drive should become more extensive in the labour movement both on a national and on an international scale. . . . The world trade union movement undeniably has opportunities to give greater force to the trends of opinion opposing this insane arms drive. Every form of pressure must be applied against it.

The Congress of the Seamen's Union recalls its demands to give a final NO to atomic arms for Sweden to make the North an atom-free zone, for an active Swedish policy in favour of disarmament, the banning of the manufacture, use, testing, stockpiling and proliferation of nuclear weapons.

The Congress demands a re-examination of Sweden's military expenditure and the question of conventional weapons in order to invest the sums saved in peaceful research and in the world-wide struggle against hunger.

Ny Dag, September 2, 1984.

Copenhagen Seamen in a motion sent to the Danish Government on August 13 say that "in view of the threat to world peace raised by the acts of violence in Vietnam and Cyprus all peace-loving forces must move into action, as solving problems by resorting to war is a calamity and disgrace for mankind. Denmark must do everything to make sure that hostilities give way to negotiations. The problems in South-East Asia can be solved, and negotiations can be effective if China occupies her legitimate place in the United Nations."

Land og Folk, August 16.

Alborg General Workers' Union and their joint trade union leadership representing about 8,000 workers declared their "deep anxiety at the dangerous trend of events in the Far East and Cyprus" and called on the Government and the Danish Parliament to use their influence in the United Nations to bring about a peaceful solution.

Land og Folk, August 21.

Copenhagen Building Workers reminded their Government on August 7, that the desire for peace, common to all the people of the world must be accompanied by action on the part of the governments concerned, especially in the United Nations, to bring about condemnation of every form of aggression and every attempt to jeopardise peace."

Land og Folk, August 8

The Finnish Docker's Union at a meeting of its Executive on September 1, endorsed the appeal of the 7th Workers' Conference of the Baltic countries and asked its members to work even more actively for peaceful co-existence and complete disarmament, in collaboration with all peace-loving forces.

Kansan Utiset, September 2, 1984

The Danish Printers Conference, (August 31 to September 3) "noted that consistent opposition is being shown to the presence of atomic weapons on Danish territory, and hopes that Denmark will take the lead in a campaign towards the destruction of atomic weapons everywhere in the world. As international tension is relaxing, Denmark should disarm and the resources thus released should be used for peaceful purposes, particularly for social improvements, a reduction in the taxes on the working population and the construction of housing at moderate rents."

DECLARATION

OF THE WFTU

ON September 28, 1964, the workers and trade unions all over the world will celebrate the centenary of the First International, created by those great leaders of the working class, Karl Marx and Frederic Engels.

The World Federation of Trade Unions pays homage to the English and French workers who took an active part in the creation of this first international working-class organisations.

The foundation of the First International marked a new step in the history of the world's working class. It laid the basis for the international working-class struggle for socialism.

This First International issued the historic slogan: "Workers of all lands, unite", which for a century has helped to unite the workers of different countries in their class struggle for freedom and social progress.

Within its ranks the world working-class movement was forged and became conscious of its historic mission. It was the flame which illuminated the way of the working class towards a bright future: it gave the working class an example of unity which stimulated it for action.

If the working class can now see everywhere an increase in its role and its influence as well as in the role and influence of its broadest mass organisations, the trade unions, in several countries it is building a new world free from exploitation of man by man, it is the result of putting into practice the ideas of the First International.

Its centenary is being celebrated in conditions of the building of the world socialist system, the decisive factor in social development, in conditions of a powerful upsurge of the working-class movement in the capitalist countries and of great victories by the peoples' national liberation struggle.

On this great anniversary, the WFTU declares that it is proud to be advancing on the road opened by the pioneers of 1864. In accordance with the great ideas of the First International, it is working with all its strength to achieve trade union unity regardless of differences of race, nationality, religion or political opinion.

In the present conditions, marked by an increased attack by the monopolists against the interests of the workers, the WFTU remains faithful to the slogan of the First International: "Workers of all lands, unite" in calling on them to oppose the monopoly alliance with the alliance and unity of the workers and trade unions of the world for the vital interests of the workers, for peace, national independence and social progress.

On this glorious anniversary, the WFTU calls on all workers and all trade union organisations, regardless of their national or international affiliation, to seek actively everything which brings them closer together, to unite in their joint struggle for the most noble ideas which were proclaimed so forcefully 100 years ago by the young international working-class movement.

Workers of all lands, unite!

for the striking miners of Charleroi and the Borinage, as well as for the foundry workers of Seraing who had troops sent against them.

By its fighting record the International won not only the deep affection of the workers but gained many thousands of new members. The solidarity and aid of the International was also generously extended to the freedom fighters of the oppressed peoples, above all the Polish people's fight for freedom . . .

At the present stage there are good perspectives in the capitalist countries to form large coalitions around the working class comprising all those who are willing to struggle for peace, the rebirth and broadening of democracy, and the breaking of the power of the monopolist oligarchy.

Proletarian Internationalism is the most important and most precious bequest of the International Workingmen's Association.

The building of Socialism and Communism is a decisive contribution by the Soviet Union and other Socialist countries to the world liberation struggle.

The more actively and successfully this construction proceeds, the more will the positions of capitalism, colonialism and neo-colonialism be undermined, the greater will be our aid to our class brothers in capitalist countries, to all peoples fighting for their freedom and national liberation.

THE HUNDRETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST INTERNATIONAL

The date was 28th September, 1864. The place was St. Martin's Hall, Long Acre, London. More than 2,000 people, most of them trade unionists, attended a meeting to hear a reply from representative French workers to a message sent to them some weeks earlier by a group of British trade unionists. The immediate cause of this exchange of messages was the determination of leading British and French workers' representatives to express support for the Polish people who, in 1863, had risen in insurrection against the repressive rule of Tsarist Russia. On both sides, however, there was a feeling that some more permanent form of organisation should be established to express the bond of friendship and common purpose between the workers of different countries.

The St. Martin's Hall meeting had an international flavour. Not only were there British and French speakers but a number of songs were given by a German workmen's choir. Representative exiles from a number of other European countries were also present.

Towards the end of the meeting a resolution was moved and adopted to the effect that an international association of working men should be formed. So was established the International Workingmen's Association, which ever since has been known as the First International . . .

The First International lasted for about nine years. During this period it had an active life. A number of international congresses of workers' representatives were held and the committees of the International, known as the General Council, met regularly . . .

The guiding spirit in the International was Karl Marx. His task was a difficult one. The other representatives had all kinds of ideas, ranging, on the one hand, from what would now be described as anarchism to, on the other, narrow trade unionism. Marx drafted the important declarations of the International, including its famous Inaugural Address and Provisional Rules. That it achieved as much as it did and that it lasted for nine years, until wrecked by internal controversy and the temporary decline of the movement in Western Europe, was due considerably to the influence of Marx. To this day the declarations which Marx drafted and his method of work provide a guide for the theory and practice of the trade union and labour movement . . .

The existence of the First International was of historic significance. It expressed the common interests of workers of all countries. The emancipation of labour, said the Provisional Rules of the International, "is neither a local nor a national, but a social problem embracing all countries in which modern society exists . . ."

Secondly, the International expressed the need for an independent international workers' movement with both economic and political objectives.

Thirdly the International, through the guidance given by Marx, related the immediate struggles of the workers for higher pay and shorter hours of work to longer-term social objectives. Marx opposed those who dismissed as of no consequence the trade union efforts of the workers. He equally opposed others whose vision was limited to trade union objectives.

The structure of the International was accommodating enough to enable any workers' organisation to join which had as its aim "the protection, progress and complete emancipation of the working class".

The members of the International had vastly divergent opinions how this aim was to be achieved. Nevertheless Marx succeeded to have his basic ideas incorporated in the programme of the International: Abolition of capitalist exploitation, the organisation of the working class to enable it to throw its whole weight into the scales, not merely in the fight for economic improvements, but also to conquer political power.

The Inaugural Address characterised the law on the ten-hour day in England as a victory of a principle, as a victory of the political economy of the workers over the political economy of the bourgeoisie. This attitude was directed against the ruling circles which rejected any legislative limitation of the working day by reference to the 'law of supply and demand', as well as against the views of many trade union leaders who wanted the movement to confine itself to reforms only.

Marx showed that the fight to improve the lot of the working class had to be linked with the fight to do away with exploitation, an idea which he developed with remarkable lucidity in a lecture before the general council of the International in June 1865 (later published in the pamphlet "Wages, Price and Profit") as well as in the resolution concerning the role of the trade unions which he had drawn up and which was adopted by the 1866 Geneva Conference.

The International gave aid to strikes everywhere and its solidarity actions often helped to decide the issue in favour of the strikers. This was so with the strike of the Paris bronze workers and the Geneva building workers. Even where the workers were beaten, as in the strike of the cotton workers, of the North of France, the work of the International led to the setting up of trade unions. The International organised broad solidarity actions and collections of funds in Europe and the USA

This position taken by CG 5824-S*, that is, not claiming reimbursement from CP, USA funds for his own travel, is an integral part of his cover with the CP, USA and is a very important part of the informant's maneuvering to maintain his position as the official emissary of the CP, USA to the CPSU. It is well known that there are many members of the leadership of the CP, USA who would leap at the opportunity to take over the duties and responsibilities currently held by CG 5824-S*. It is only by portraying to GUS HALL the image of a successful businessman of some means who is willing to donate his time and money to the Party that CG 5824-S* is able to deter HALL from giving consideration to utilizing someone else on these Solo Missions. Dear Mr. Rusk:

My letter to you dated November 3, 1964, set forth information concerning a meeting of an Editorial Commission scheduled to take place in Moscow, Russia, on December 15, 1964, for the purpose of preparing for a conference of world communist parties.

I thought you would be interested in reading the enclosed memorandum which contains information the Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union recently furnished to the Communist Party, USA. The information pertains to the current status of Sino-Soviet relations and the above-mentioned Editorial Commission meeting.

Because of the sensitive nature of our sources, which have furnished reliable information in the past, this letter and its enclosure are classified "~~Top Secret~~." This information is being furnished to other interested officials of the Government.

Sincerely yours,

SAC Donald Roney, New York Office, called at 8 p.m., 11-27-64, and furnished the following information to Night Supervisor A. J. Decker:

NY 694-S* had a personal meeting during the evening of 11-27-64 with his Soviet contact, Vladimir A. Chuchukin, Attache, Soviet Delegation to the United Nations. Chuchukin told informant orally that the planned 12-15-64 meeting in Moscow of all Communist Parties has now been postponed until 3-1-65, unless some "good objections are raised."

Chuchukin stated that the Soviets would like the opinion of Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party (CP), on two matters. (1) The opinion of Hall and the CPUSA as to the postponement until 3-1-65. (2) The opinion of Hall and the CPUSA as to the advisability of making now a public announcement to the world as to the postponement.

NY 694-S* is of the opinion that this conference has definitely been postponed and that the solicitation of the opinion of Hall and the CPUSA is merely a courtesy or formality.

SAC Roney advised that the above information has been telephonically furnished to Chicago so that it may be given to CG 5824-S* who is preparing to depart on 11-28-64 for Moscow.

New York is submitting an airtel furnishing all details.

On 11/25/64, there was received at a NY mail drop a note from WILLIAM KASHTAN, Labor Secretary of the Canadian CP, enclosing 3 documents which the latter had received from BEATRICE JOHNSON, CPUSA Liaison in Cuba, for transmittal to the CPUSA. Four Photostats of these documents are being furnished to the Bureau and 1 Photostat to Chicago.

The first document is a memorandum addressed to GUS HALL, wherein BEATRICE JOHNSON comments on the Cuban reaction to the current situation in the Soviet Union as a result of the removal of KHRUSHCHEV. The said document also reflects the opinion of Cuban President DORTICOS with respect to the meaning of peaceful co-existence. Also, it reflects the interpretation of co-existence by the Cuban Foreign Minister RAO.

The second document is a letter from JOHNSON, addressed to WILLIAM KASHTAN, mentioned above, reflecting the aims and purposes of the Revolutionary Action Movement which is being directed by ROBERT F. WILLIAMS. The document reflects that BEATRICE JOHNSON obtained a translation of an article written in the Mexican Journal "Politica" and fears that if publicity is given to the article, the impression will be created in Cuba that ROBERT WILLIAMS is heading an international movement, which, in fact, is non-existent.

In the 11/64 issue of "Political Affairs," the theoretical journal of the CP, USA, there was contained an "editorial comment" entitled, "Two Major Events, a First Look." The editorial comment was prepared by HYMAN LUMER, Editor of "Political Affairs", and approved generally by individuals in the National Office, CP, USA.

CG 5824-S* advised that he had no prior knowledge of the content of this editorial comment as it appeared in "Political Affairs" and when it did come to his attention, he took it up immediately with GUS HALL, General Secretary, CP, USA. CG 5824-S* informed HALL that some of the language used in this editorial comment as well as the manner in which the material was formulated had been perhaps very ill advised. He noted that the possibility exists that this editorial comment could create serious problems because of its criticism of the CPSU when he goes to conduct his negotiations for funds on behalf of the CP, USA. CG 5824-S* emphasized strongly to HALL that this editorial comment had placed him in a very embarrassing position, particularly after leading representatives, including the First Secretary of the CPSU, had taken time to brief him personally on the sequence of events that had occurred there as they related to NIKITA S. KHRUSHCHEV.

HALL agreed with CG 5824-S*'s criticism and stated he had been led to believe that the editorial comment would not be published in the form in which it actually had appeared. He agreed that the arrogance of its approach and that the praise for KHRUSHCHEV which had appeared in the editorial comment could be damaging to the prestige of the CP, USA in the eyes of the CPSU. HALL agreed to take this matter up immediately upon his return to New York and see what could be done to repair some of the possible damage that this editorial comment might have done.

While CG 5824-S* was in New York during the period 11/17-22/64, this "Political Affairs" editorial comment came up for both private discussion and for discussion at the National Board, CP, USA meeting. At the National Board meeting, the "Political Affairs" editorial comment was criticized by some individuals present and LUMER, himself, admitted that in light of current existing facts and information presently available, he probably would have had some second thoughts regarding some of the language used in this editorial comment.

In private discussions with CG 5824-S*, which occurred after discussions with HALL, LUMER personally prepared for the source a handwritten note which is, in effect, a self-criticism and an apology for some of the false impressions which may have been created by the "Political Affairs" editorial comment. The text of the note which LUMER prepared at this time is set forth, in full, below and is to be turned over to the CPSU:

"Dear Comrades--

"We wish to offer an apology for the unfortunate appearance of the editorial in the November issue of Political Affairs. First, while it was written and was in the printers before we were informed of the details of the Khrushchev resignation, it appeared afterward and thus gave the erroneous impression that we were raising questions after we had received a report.

"Second, on reflection we realized that some of the language was unduly sharp and that demands were made that should not be made of a fraternal party.

"We wish to assure you that our profound respect and feeling of comradeship toward the CPSU remain unaltered, as does our appreciation of both its tremendous contribution to human progress and the problems it faces. We shall do what we can to correct any false impressions which may be created.

"With warmest fraternal greetings

- 2 - Hyman Lumer, Editor"

SUBJECT: SOLO
INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

This memorandum recommends that information obtained by NY 694-S* concerning the current status of Sino-Soviet relations as well as the forthcoming Editorial Commission meeting in Moscow, Russia, be disseminated to the White House, Secretary of State Rusk, Director McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), and the Acting Attorney General.

On 11/24/64 and 11/27/64 NY 694-S* met with his Soviet contact, Vladimir A. Chuchukin, an official of the Soviet Mission to the United Nations. Chuchukin told informant to transmit the following information from the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, to Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA.

The date of the Editorial Commission meeting to prepare for a world conference of communist parties scheduled to be held in Moscow on 12/15/64 has been postponed until 3/1/65. The opinion of Gus Hall was solicited as to the advisability of making a public announcement concerning the postponement. The meeting has been postponed because the Chinese, during their recent meeting with the Soviets in Moscow, indicated that they would not attend or participate in any manner in the Editorial Commission meeting.

During the recent meeting of Sino-Soviet representatives in Moscow, the Chinese refused to agree to a proposal by the Soviets that open polemics be immediately ceased. The Chinese insisted that the Soviets stop catering to the United States and demanded that the Soviet Union remove from its policy the question of peaceful coexistence with all countries, particularly the United States.

ACTION:

Appropriate letters are attached for approval to the White House, Secretary of State, Director of CIA and the Acting Attorney General incorporating the information furnished by NY 694-S*.

My memorandum 10/8/64 indicated that radio transmission, intercepted by Bureau's Midland radio station, used procedures and mannerisms identical to those in Bureau's highly sensitive SOLO case. Subsequent request 10/13/64 by Internal Security Section, Domestic Intelligence Division, initiated further monitoring to determine possible future action.

Attached is a listing of transmissions and messages intercepted by the Midland radio station.

It is noted that station WRN has been heard past three Fridays at 1315 GMT on 13355 Kc, usually sending traffic. Call is transmitted at slow speed but traffic is sent at 60 groups per minute. Station OKE transmits Monday through Saturday on 13330 Kc at 1525 GMT and again at 1545 GMT on 12685 Kc. He sends traffic at about 35 groups per minute.

Cryptanalytic examination of listed messages indicated they were enciphered with random keying and could not be deciphered at this time. No further identifying data could be developed for origin or intended destination of this traffic.

It is pointed out that listed material constitutes but a small fragment of clandestine type transmissions over broad radio spectrum, interception and analysis of which is primary responsibility of National Security Agency (NSA). Latter is obliged to keep Bureau apprised through continuing liaison of communications intelligence items of interest to Bureau.

Memorandum to Mr. Conrad
Re: SOLO

Because of extreme sensitivity of SOLO case, which involves radio transmissions in code to NY 694-S*, and small likelihood of intelligence of real value to be forthcoming, it would not appear advisable to contact NSA at present time regarding this traffic which so closely approaches SOLO schedules and undoubtedly would draw attention thereto.

In view of negative results of our examination of representative sampling of clandestine radio traffic similar to SOLO transmissions, fact that listed transmissions involve only a small fragment of total radio traffic picture, and security sensitivity of our SOLO case, it would not appear profitable to continue monitoring coverage and cryptanalysis at this time.

ACTION:

Subject to review and concurrence of Internal Security Section and unless advised to contrary, special radio monitoring at Midland described above, and cryptanalysis associated therewith, will be discontinued.

The Communist Party, USA, recently advised the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, that it was in complete agreement with the decision to postpone until March 1, 1965, the meeting of the Editorial Commission, originally scheduled to be held in Moscow, Russia, on December 15, 1964. The Communist Party, USA, cautioned that any public announcement concerning the postponement must be extremely circumspect in order to guard against conveying the impression that a capitulation had been made to the wrong political concepts of the Communist Party of China. In this connection the Communist Party, USA, noted that the Chinese are promoting the idea that Khrushchev was removed because of his wrong concepts in the Sino-Soviet ideological struggle. The Communist Party, USA, strongly urged that whatever public announcement is made, it must not give credence to any belief that the Chinese, after all, had been correct in this struggle.

The Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, informed the Communist Party, USA, that originally twenty-six communist parties had been invited to participate at the meeting of the Editorial Commission originally scheduled for December 15, 1964, and the communist parties of the following countries, in addition to the Soviet Union, had indicated that they would be willing to attend the meeting: Argentina, Australia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Finland, France, German Democratic Republic, Federal Republic of Germany, Hungary, India, Italy, Mongolia, Poland, Syria, the United Kingdom and the United States.

According to the Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, Japan and Indonesia advised that before agreeing to attend the meeting of the Editorial Commission they desired additional information with respect to the meeting. Rumania advised that it would not send delegates to the meeting unless all of the other twenty-five communist parties agreed to attend the meeting. Albania, China, North Korea and North Vietnam refused to attend the meeting under any circumstances.

The Central Committee, Communist Party of the Soviet Union, further advised that after much deliberation it had decided that it would be best to invite all communist parties of the world, rather than just twenty-six communist parties, to attend the meeting of the Editorial Commission now scheduled to be held in Moscow on March 1, 1965.

INFORMATION REGARDING PUBLIC SALE OF CROSSCURRENTS PRESS, INC., NEW YORK,
NEW YORK AND REQUEST FOR DISCUSSIONS WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF CPSU

In discussion with GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party (CP), USA, during the latter part of the week of November 15, 1964, that individual remarked that MYRON SHARPE, owner of Crosscurrents Press, Inc., New York City, was still willing to sell out and he, HALL, would like to see it sold to the right person. HALL however stated SHARPE was demanding approximately $42,000 compensation for his interest in Crosscurrents Press and therefore before any final deal is made with him he would like the matter discussed with representatives of the CP, Soviet Union (CPSU), have them view the contract for sale that SHARPE has offered and secure some agreement and approval from them on the contract conditions and other problems.

At this same time, HALL made available a rough draft copy of the contract for sale which MYRON SHARPE was offering. The full text of this contract of sale is set forth below:

AGREEMENT made this _____ day of _____, 1964, between MYRON E. SHARPE (hereinafter referred to as the Seller), JEAN KARSAVINA and _____ Corporation (hereinafter referred to as the Purchaser), and CROSSCURRENTS PRESS, INC. (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation),

W I T N E S S E T H :

WHEREAS, the Seller is the sole stockholder of the Corporation, and holds the stock issued or authorized to be issued of the aforesaid Corporation; and

WHEREAS, _____, _____ and _____, are officers and directors of the aforesaid Corporation; and

WHEREAS, the Corporation is a domestic corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, with its principal place of business at _____; and

WHEREAS, the Seller wishes to sell all his right, title and interest in said business, and the Purchaser wishes to purchase the same,
